Thanks For American Aid

Ike Cheered In Greece; Tour's At Halfway Point

By EUGENE LEVIN
 ATHENS, Greece (AP)—President Eisenhower arrived in Athens today for another mammoth welcome which expressed thanks for more than 12 years of American aid to this tough little ally alongside the Iron Curtain.

The President's big orange and silver jet landed at a seaside airport after a six-hour stop in Iran that marked the halfway point in his 22,000-mile goodwill tour.

King Paul I of Greece was at Ellinikon, the Athens airport, to greet Eisenhower as he flew in from Tehran.

Crown Prince Constantine and Premier Constantine Karamanlis also welcomed the President, the first American chief executive to visit this ancient country.

Thousands of Greeks turned out to make the welcome another memorable occasion for the President. School children got a holiday and many workers were given time off.

Prime Minister Karamanlis urged his people to greet Eisenhower "with the enthusiasm imposed by the personality of our visitor and the significance of his mission."

The President's 10-mile route into Athens lay along a broad four-lane highway beside the blue waters of the Bay of Phaleron, then past the temple of the Olympian Zeus and the great arch of Hadrian.

Thousands of U.S. flags and the blue and white banners of Greece dotted the route, flying between pepper and orange trees. "Welcome Eisenhower" posters were plastered on hundreds of buildings.

Tonight, in honor of the occasion, the floodlights will be turned on such historic monuments as the Acropolis and the Parthenon.

Even the Communist-line EDA party joined in. It urged a warm welcome for the President, ignoring for the moment the role American aid played in crushing the Communists during the Greek civil war in the late 1940s.

The Greek Premier said Eisenhower's one-day visit would give the Greek people an opportunity to repay "a great moral obligation—to express our feelings of friendship and gratitude to the American people who for over 12 years have extended not only their political and moral support but also material assistance for its rehabilitation."

Eisenhower will spend the night at the royal palace, along with his son and daughter-in-law, Maj. John and Barbara Eisenhower. King Paul and Queen Frederika came in from their country home at Tatoi to be hosts to the visitors. The highlight of his brief stay will be an address to the Greek Parliament Tuesday.

The President will get his best look at the city Tuesday when a helicopter takes him to the U.S. cruiser Des Moines, anchored in Phaleron Bay. The Des Moines will carry Eisenhower to Tunis, the next stop on his tour.

Eisenhower left New Delhi, India, after a spectacular four-day visit that brought an overwhelming display of affection by millions of Indians. Prime Minister Nehru said that when the President left he took with him "a piece of our heart."

In Tehran, Eisenhower was cheered by an estimated 750,000 Iranians. Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi said the President brought with him "security, democracy and freedom from your great country."

Union Official Sees Peril In Rail Demands

Gilbert Cites Threat To Organized Labor In Management Bid

CLEVELAND — H. E. Gilbert, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, charged today that railroad management's "shotgun blast" at wage and protective rules of operating employees perils the existence of organized labor in the industry.

Gilbert presented his views in a detailed analysis and interpretation of the work rules served by U. S. railroads on general committees of his union and similar groups of the four other operating organizations. The analysis appeared in the December issue of the BLF&E magazine.

"Every proposal advanced by management is designed to render impotent the railway labor movement," he said.

Gilbert heads the 87,000-member Locomotive Firemen's Union, which represents more than 60,000 locomotive firemen.

In his review of railroad demands, Gilbert singled out the significant phrase — "Management shall have the unrestricted right..." which he said recurs throughout the notices and which, in his estimation, is the core of all that management seeks.

"Here is the true import of the great 'featherbedding' campaign. Management seeks complete surrender by employees and a return to the days of submission when the 'boss' made up the rules and every other worker followed them, or else," he asserted.

Gilbert advised that the present state of the rules dispute is on the general committee level.

"Our general chairman have been meeting with their management to gain a full explanation of these notices, and we've had some surprising reports.

"One personnel director told a general chairman that the notices eliminate everything between the front and back covers of our contract.

"More than a few personnel men said they could not discuss the notices because they, themselves, did not know their full meaning," Gilbert added.

Management served a total of three notices on the labor organizations representing 250,000 operating employees. The notices dealt with assignment of firemen (helpers) on diesel locomotives, basis of pay and assignment of employees and consist of crews.

Gilbert said the carriers' notice would have the general effect of eliminating all rules governing use of firemen (helpers) on locomotives, other than steam, in freight and yard service.

Gunman Gets $20,000 At Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—A man with a snub-nosed revolver held up a northside branch of the Union National Bank today and escaped with an estimated $20,000, police reported.

A customer, who was entering the bank as the bandit left, chased the gunman on foot but was unable to apprehend him. Police said the man ran north on Ohio 90.

The robber, wearing a silk stocking pulled down over his face, was described as about six-foot tall and weighed about 220 pounds. He was attired in a checkered brown coat.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — A bomb was found today inside the Dollar Savings and Trust Co. Branch in the Lincoln Knolls shopping plaza.

Police and the FBI were investigating.

River's Crest May Reach 27

Expected High Mark To Miss Flood Stage

Swollen by heavy weekend rains, the Ohio River was climbing slowly toward an expected crest of about 27 feet today at Dam 8 at Newell.

The stream still was inching upward this morning, but at the rate of only about a tenth of a foot an hour. At 8 a. m., it stood at 26.4 feet and attendants at Dam 8 said they were expecting a crest of about 27 or less — which would be 5 feet below the 32-foot flood stage.

Because of the slow rate of rise, the river may not hit its crest until mid- afternoon. A crest of 21 feet, 4 feet under the 25 - foot flood stage, was expected at Pittsburgh.

The eventual crest here will depend partly upon the volume of water fed into the river by the "feeder" streams between East Liverpool and Pittsburgh.

Melting of a heavy accumulation of snow also helped account for the rise. At Pittsburgh, the Federal - State Flood Forecasting Service said the heaviest rise occurred on the Allegheny River.

There's no more rain in sight immediately, the Ohio weatherman said. It will be partly cloudy and warmer today with a high of 40-45. It will be increasingly cloudy and warmer tonight and Tuesday. Tonight's low will be 32 to 36.

NATO Aides Await Start Of Key Meetings

Herter And French Official Set Tone With Parley Today

BULLETIN
 PARIS (AP) — France called "excessive and dramatic" today critical remarks made about this country last week by Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff.

PARIS (AP) — Nine days of brisk diplomatic exchanges opened here today as the West sought to bolster its military alliance and prepare for summit talks with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and Maurice Couve de Murville, France's foreign minister, planned a morning meeting expected to set the tone for the conference of the NATO foreign ministers starting Tuesday.

A frigid atmosphere surrounded the talks of the French and American diplomats. Long-standing disagreements were emphasized last week with the disclosure of remarks by Gen. Nathan Twining, chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Twining, meeting with other military chiefs of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, deplored the delay by most West European members of NATO in accepting U.S. atomic weapons and stockpiles and in integrating their air forces into one air defense structure. He made clear the United States feels France is the major offender.

U.S. officials predicted Herter would pursue the line Twining laid down.

The U.S. secretary of state welcomed recent relaxation in world tension on his arrival Sunday, but warned: "It remains to be seen whether the Soviet Union is prepared to negotiate seriously to reach equitable settlements of major issues. It would be a grave error to base our plans for the future on a more optimistic appraisal than is warranted by the facts."

On the economic front, U.S. Under secretary of State Douglas Dillon wound up five days of economic talks in London, Brussels, Bonn and Paris.

Weirton Police Hold 4 In Jewelry Store Theft

WEIRTON — Four area youths are being held in city jail here today under $5,000 bond each after being arrested by police this morning at 1:20 in connection with a robbery at a jewelry store.

Awaiting hearings on charges of breaking and entering the Schenley Jewelry store are Edward Huggins, 18, and Thomas J. Aleksiejczyk, 18, both of Steubenville. James Lowe, 20, of Weirton and a 17 - year - old Weirton youth.

Police also are holding Bruce L. Martin, 21, of Weirton for investigation after he implicated himself when arrested this morning for drinking.

Police said two guitars stolen from the store were found in a car in which the four youths were riding. Police noticed the auto going the wrong way on a one - way street and stopped the driver for questioning. The arrests followed.

Crash On Route 267 Injures Driver, 17, And Girl Companion

A city youth and a girl companion in his car were hospitalized Sunday night after the auto careened off Route 267 near Westfield Rd. and overturned—one of four area traffic mishaps reported over the weekend by the State Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

Charles L. Barnhouse, 17, of 920 Myler Rd. and Linda Rae Evans, 17, of 613 Monroe St. are in "fairly good" condition today at City Hospital with injuries suffered in the crash at 11:05 p. m.

Barnhouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Barnhouse, received lacerations and abrasions of the face. Miss Evans, daughter of Mrs. Ethel Evans, suffered lacerations of the face and bruises of the head and chest.

Officers said Barnhouse was headed south when he lost control and the car went left of center and off the road, rolling over and turning end-over-end. The 1957 sedan was demolished, the patrol said. The driver was cited under the juvenile traffic code.

Douglas Reed, 16, of Lisbon St. Ext. was treated at City Hospital Saturday after a station wagon in which he was a passenger criss crossed Shady Side Ave. and ended up in a ditch.

The car was driven by John Reark, 16, of Williams Ave. who, officers said, rounded a curve about two miles north of the city limits and lost control about 4:50 p. m.

The 1950 tudor went left of center to the left berm, and then crossed the road and went into the right ditch. Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Reed, was treated for bruises. Reark was cited under the juvenile code.

Earl Rhodes, 57, of 210 Jefferson St. was treated at Osteopathic Hospital Saturday night after his car was struck from the rear by another on the Wellsville-East Liverpool "super road."

Officers said a car driven by Norman L. Ferguson, 27, of 1160 Harker Ave. was following Rhodes "at an excessive speed and too closely" as both were headed south at 10:20 p. m. about a mile south of East Liverpool.

Ferguson pulled out to pass and his car hit the rear of Rhodes' auto. The patrol said damage was

2 Still Sought For Robbery

Formal Charge Filed Against One Suspect

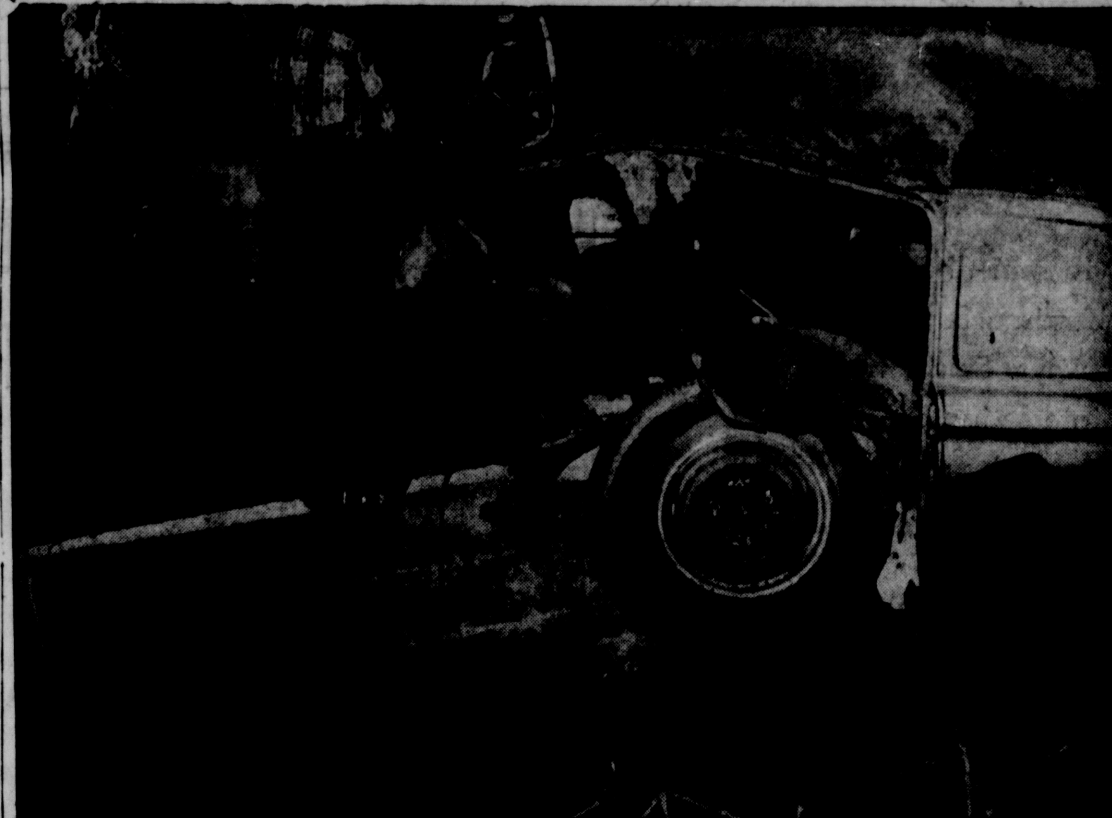

LISBON — County authorities continued a search today for two suspects in the armed robbery of the Barnett Motel west of Salem early Friday morning while a third man is scheduled to receive a hearing today before County Judge Luther Donbar of Salem.

The sheriff's office said over the weekend the two suspects are known. Meanwhile, James Harold Maras, 20, of Warren has been charged formally with armed robbery and will be arraigned today.

Maras was identified Friday afternoon in a lineup by Nick Rini and Miss Berdena Bergman, who were tied up by the robbers before they fled in a waiting car after taking $650 cash and $165 in checks. Maras was arrested at his home by Trumbull County authorities on a tip.

The trio was stopped by police on Route 62 in Trumbull County but the officers had not yet heard of the robbery.

Sheriff Russell J. Van Fossan said Saturday warrants have been issued for the 30-year-old brother of Maras and a 38-year-old convict who was released last month on parole following conviction on a charge of armed robbery.

CRASH SHAMBLES. Charges Data Held Up

5 Wage Boost Ordinances Given Approval By Mayor

Five ordinances boosting wages and salaries of city employees and most officials - elect, enacted by Council Dec. 7, were signed into law today by Fred P. Lawrence, who charged he has been frustrated in attempts to obtain accurate data on the city's current financial condition and the fund balances that will be carried into 1960 for the new administration.

The mayor's approval means that, effective Jan. 1, about 140 municipal employees will begin drawing 5 per cent pay boosts and $50-a-month wage increases will take effect for 11 department heads. The action also means these salary hikes for officials-elect: Mayor, up $2,800 to $5,200; treasurer, up $320 to $1,320; Council president, hiked $58 to $1,200, and 7 councilmen, boosted $300 to $900.

"In a comparison of local rates with information from the Ohio Municipal League, it appears quite definite that the increased rates—whether for wages or salaries—still will be well within the median range of comparable rates of pay or salary in other Ohio communities in our population range," the mayor said.

"It's already well-known that I have felt that the city employees should have an increase when the funds were available to bring them up to the median," he added.

In an assessment of the city's present condition and the outlook for next year, the mayor alleged

300 Workers Enter Plant; Troops Alert

ALBERT LEA, Minn. (AP) — Some 300 nonunion workers filed into the strike-stilled Wilson & Co. plant here early today under National Guard protection as the company began temporary clean-up operations to avoid spoilage of meat on hand.

There were no incidents as Guardsmen checked workers into the plant. No pickets or sympathizers were in sight near the plant this morning after an easing of tension Sunday.

Attorneys for Wilson were ready to seek an injunction in U.S. District Court in Minneapolis to force Gov. Orville L. Freeman and the militia to release their hold on the struck plant.

Freeman announced Sunday that Wilson and the United Packinghouse Workers of America had agreed to resume negotiations in the dispute.

The plant was serene today in marked comparison with last Wednesday and Thursday when cars carrying nonunion workers were stoned, spat upon and overturned by a crowd of nearly 1,000 demonstrators.

A cold and wind-driven freezing drizzle pelted the Guardsmen as they patrolled the area outside the Wilson gates today.

A few of the cars checked through the gate today bore signs of last week's violent demonstrations. Some broken windows had been taped up and some cars had dents as a result of rock-throwing incidents.

Death Boosts County Traffic Toll To 27, 6 Ahead Of 1958

County 1958 Traffic Toll 27 KILLED
 This date in 1958—21 killed!
 TAKE YOUR TIME IN '59

A 45-year-old city man was killed near Elkton Sunday night in the crash of his car against a concrete culvert which shoved the concrete block about 12 inches and hurled the motor block almost 13 feet.

Gilbert White, 413 College St., an employee of Buck's Tavern on Market St., was found dead in the auto about two hours after the crash along County Rd. 419 between Brookside and Elkton.

The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon said White's 1949 coach veered off the roadway about two miles east of Route 7, went onto the northeast berm and rammed the culvert.

Authorities indicated the car apparently was traveling at a high rate of speed.

Dr. R. C. Costello, deputy county coroner, ruled the death accidental. He said death was caused by a fractured skull, crushed chest and other multiple lacerations and fractures.

The death was the 27th in the county so far this year, compared to 21 this time in 1958.

The patrol at Lisbon first learned of the crash about 9:30 by the telephone call from a passing motorist. A minute later, the officers received a call from Mrs. Raymond Donnelly, who resides with her husband a short distance from the scene.

Mrs. Donnelly said they had not heard the crash, probably because of their television, but said she had seen the auto there about 8. She surmised it was someone with a flat tire and finally walked to the scene and discovered the wreck.

Mr. White was born at Canonsburg, Pa., a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George White. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Patricia White of East Liverpool, and a sister, Mrs. John Armon of Alliance. The body was removed to the Dawson Funeral Home. Arrangements are incomplete.

Ironclad Phone Lines Knocked Out By Bullet

IRONDALE — Telephone service for 75 village residents was disrupted for about 24 hours over the weekend after a rifle bullet ripped through a service cable. T. F. Edwards, area commercial manager for Ohio Bell Telephone Co., said the bullet that smashed into the cable was either fired by a vandal or possibly was a stray shot from a hunter's gun.

The shot affected 25 lines and disrupted telephone service to the 75 Ohio Bell customers at 2:30 Saturday afternoon.

Workers pinpointed the trouble shortly after service was interrupted and completed repairs about noon Sunday. Complete service was restored about 4 p. m. Sunday.

Pair Arrested In Radio Theft

An East Liverpool youth was fined and his juvenile companion was turned over to the custody of his parents at hearings Saturday in St. Clairsville in connection with the theft of a radio Friday night in Bellaire.

Belmont County sheriff's deputies said Daniel E. McCartney, 19, of East Liverpool R. D. 1 was fined $40 by County Judge George Britton of St. Clairsville in connection with the theft of a transistor radio from a Bellaire motorist who had picked up the two youths, who were hitch-hiking.

The 17-year-old city juvenile and McCartney were taken into custody Friday night after Jerry Ulrey of Bellaire reported to the sheriff's office that the pair had stolen his car radio.

Ulrey told deputies that he had picked up the two youths in Bridgeport and had taken them to Bellaire, where the theft occurred.

During police radio conversation regarding the theft, Monroe County Sheriff Homer Antill, who was heading north on Route 7, overheard the descriptions of the two youths. Antill picked up the two youths near Powhatan Point and took them to jail in St. Clairsville.

Wellsville Driver Cited As Auto Hits Fire Plug

East End Driver Hurt In Dresden Ave. Crash

An East End motorist is in good condition today at City Hospital with injuries received when his car sideswiped a stopped city street department truck and forced a Greyhound Bus to leave the highway to avoid a head-on collision late Sunday night on Dresden Ave. near Trentvale St.

Robert Adkins, 1846 Harvey Ave., was admitted to the hospital shortly after the mishap, but neither the hospital nor police listed the injuries.

John R. Mitchell, 61, of 827 Fairview St., driver of the half-ton dump truck, said he had halted the truck in the right lane headed west when the car approached from the rear and was unable to stop.

The 1952 auto struck the left rear of the truck, sideswiping it and forcing the bus off the side of the highway as the driver swung out to avoid a head-on crash, Mitchell told police.

The street department apparently was scattering ashes on an icy curve just inside the city limits.

Police charged Adkins with reckless driving and driving without an operator's permit. He will be given a hearing in Municipal Court after he is released from the hospital.

WASHINGTON

One way to find time for other things is to stop guessing about the 1960 elections and the presidential candidates until 1960 is half over.

There are too many unpredictable factors between now and next summer when the political parties open their conventions. For instance: in what Congress does and in what happens in foreign affairs.

Democrats and Republicans in their 1956 campaign platform pumped out promises far more elaborate than their performance. Three years later neither party is in position to boast.

Both parties, therefore, will be under political compulsion to build up a record they can cite to the voters in 1960.

The Republicans, because President Eisenhower is in charge of foreign affairs, have an advantage in that field—if the performance is good.

The Democrats, since they have a majority in Congress, might seem to have an advantage there for claiming things accomplished. But not quite.

Eisenhower will be in a position to dilute any claims they make if he dominates Congress, as he did this year, and proposes programs which have voter appeal and are acted upon.

Possibly the 1960 elections will be more influenced by what happens in the foreign than in the domestic field. Eisenhower has a busy schedule next year in foreign affairs.

Right now, as a result of his meeting with Premier Nikita Khrushchev, there is a little less fridity in relations with the Soviet Union. Next spring he has a summit meeting with the Soviet leader.

If there is any real achievement there, the Republicans will take credit.

In Congress, which comes back to work in January and will try to finish before the conventions, Democrats and Republicans are pretty much agreed on acting in at least a couple of fields which have political importance.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, leader of the Senate Democrats, and Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Senate Republican leader, are agreed on bringing up a civil rights bill around mid-February.

Dirksen and Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, assistant Senate Democratic leader, both have said Congress is likely to pass a general farm bill.

Johnson, considered a conservative by northern Democratic liberals, may endeavor himself to them a little more if the civil rights bill has any meaning at all.

It also is possible that the Democratic party — through the anger of Southern Democrats — will suffer as a result of a Southern fight against civil rights.

If it's much of a fight, it may carry over into the Democratic convention, where the last thing the party wants is a split.

The farm bill has a special significance of its own, since the Democrats have been banging away at the Eisenhower farm program for years and the Republicans in 1960 are anxious for the farm vote.

Iowa Vote Offers Straw In The Wind

By Raymond Moley

Iowa's 4th Congressional District will briefly grip the attention of professional politicians and political observers when voters go to the polls tomorrow. For there, at stake, is one of many mid-western House seats which in recent years have switched from Republican to Democratic.

This election is already shaping up as a bitter test of party strength in Iowa. Results are certain to be held, by the winning party at least, as indicative of how elections in our vast farmland will go in 1960.

Citizens of the district will ballot in a special election to fill the vacancy created by the death of Democrat Steven V. Carter, a victim of cancer in November.

Both parties have nominated vigorous, strong young men for the office. On the Democratic side is Edwin Gilmour, 41-year-old professor at Grinnell College. He was elected in his first try for public office to a 4-year term in 1958 as state senator.

Both parties have nominated vigorous, strong young men for the office. On the Democratic side is Edwin Gilmour, 41-year-old professor at Grinnell College. He was elected in his first try for public office to a 4-year term in 1958 as state senator.

OPPOSING GILMOUR is Republican John Kyl, 40, a merchant from Bloomfield who lost to the deceased Carter by just over 3,000 votes a year ago.

This south-central district stretches east along the Missouri border, then juts up toward the heart of Iowa. The 4th District's Republicanism before 1958 dates back to records available for 1893, interrupted only by the intrusion of Democratic wins in 1908 and 1938. But, like numerous congressional districts located in the Midwest, its complexion has been slowly altering.

The 14 counties have seen a growth of industry, especially in and around the important city of Ottumwa. Strong labor organization and labor political activity, tangible farm unrest, and failure of Republican groups to get their potential voters to the polls gave Democrat Carter a bare 52 per cent of the ballots in 1958.

In victory Carter carried only 6 of the 14 counties. Significantly, he won in heavily industrialized Wapello County—by a majority of 2,800 votes, just under his margin in the entire district.

The forthcoming contest could be a measure of whether the Democratic "tide" in the Midwest is likely to ebb or flow, or to remain at its present mark. In 1954 all of Iowa's representatives were Republican.

The Democratic "tide" began with the election of Democratic Gov. Herschel C. Loveless in 1956, a year when Iowa sent only one Democrat to the House of Representatives, and reached its present mark with the re-election of Loveless and the selection of four Democratic congressmen in 1958—half of the Iowa delegation.

REPORTS INDICATE that the campaign in the 4th may be indicative of how the battle lines will form in the general elections next year. Kyl is stressing support of President Eisenhower's activities for world peace and underlining the President's efforts against inflation.

Odd Facts

The police in Tokyo, Japan, are now trying the "embarrassment" way of coping with careless or thoughtless drivers. They are pasting big red stickers on illegally parked vehicles as a sort of "public punishment" to their drivers.

The first animal mentioned in the dictionary is the aardvark. This South American animal grows to be six feet long. And although its diet consists almost exclusively of ants and termites, it can kill a man with its powerful forelegs and long claws.

Although usually the liver is considered to be the largest organ in the human body, actually this distinction belongs to the skin, which comprises about 16 per cent of the total body weight.

The longest highway across the United States is U. S. Route 6, which is 3,533 miles long runs from Provincetown, Massachusetts, to Long Beach, California.

flation. Gilmour strikes at the farm program and the policies of Ezra Taft Benson.

Clues to a number of questions may turn up in this special election. As in so many other areas of the country, there has been an enormous difference between voter turnout in a presidential year and in a congressional year, and between the number of potential voters and those who exercise the franchise. How successful will the political activity of a few weeks be in energizing voters?

Also, are the farmers going to register as pronounced opposition to administration farm policies as they have since 1958? And will labor's political action again prove its incisive, adaptable qualities?

Above all, will the political organization of the parties prove as effective as it should be?

It is safe to venture the opinion that both parties will be found wanting. But let us remember that organization strength and the number of workers may be heavily beefed up in the almost full year before the 1960 general elections in areas where voter turnout has been regrettably thin in recent years.

Down On The Farm

PARIS

For the sake of national survival, French women of the provinces are going to be taught what it takes to be like a Parisienne.

That certain "je ne sais quoi" that girls from Paris seem to be born with is to be "placed at the disposal" of the rest of France's female population. Or so, at least, the French government plans.

This isn't a question of bureaucrats poking their noses into something that doesn't concern them. In this instance, they have a legitimate interest in sex appeal.

That's because young Frenchmen come to Paris by the tens of thousands looking for it. The process has been going on for generations and the result is that much of the rest of France is fast growing depopulated, especially of its male population. At the same time, the country girls are finding fewer and fewer men to marry.

To stem the tide — among other things, Paris is getting far too crowded for the good of a balanced national economy — the government's ministry of labor has hit on the idea of sending teams into the provinces to teach the country girls how to hold onto their men, Parisienne style.

These teams of qualified experts are giving lectures in such matters as makeup, hair styles, fashions, health and, even if you'll believe it, cooking.

The whole idea, of course, is to keep the boys down on the farm by giving them something that matches what they think they're going to find in the gay, alluring capital.

"The ideal of Parisian womanhood exercises an even greater attraction among Frenchmen than it does among foreigners," a ministry official explained. "Of course, like all such things, it tends to grow out of proportion. There are just as many attractive girls in other parts of France. But just try telling a Frenchman that."

He admitted, however, that Parisiennes "do more with what they have" than other girls and this, perhaps, more than anything else, is what has made them famous.

"What we're trying to get across to other women," he added, "is the message: You, too, can be a Parisienne, even if you never go to Paris. If it works, it will be a great boon to France, mon ami."

Young Man's Game

By Alan Emory

WASHINGTON

Want to be a governor? Chances are you'll do best if you haven't yet reached the age of 50, are a lawyer, have some experience in public office, are married with at least three children and — this apparently is important — were born in the state you want to govern.

This composite results from a survey made by the Council of State Governments, which says American governors are younger than they used to be.

Considering that 26 of the 51 governors (50 states and Puerto Rico) are less than 50 years old and 5 are under 40, it's easy to see that state politics is a young man's game.

Oklahoma's Gov. J. Howard Edmondson, 34, is the baby of the group, and Pennsylvania's Gov. David L. Lawrence, 70, is the granddaddy.

In the less-than-40 group are, in addition to Edmondson, Govs.

John Patterson of Alabama, Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon, Ernest Hollings of South Carolina and Cecil Underwood of West Virginia. Hatfield is being mentioned as a possible vice presidential nominee for the GOP if the presidential nod should go to New York's 51-year-old Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Twenty-six governors are lawyers, the majority of others are businessmen, and there are a few publishers, teachers and farmers.

Only three failed to hold public office before winning election as governor. Twenty-one had state legislative experience, 10 held other statewide elective office, two were U.S. senators, four were congressmen and eight were mayors.

Higher education is a virtual must, though seven of the governors didn't get beyond high school. Three have master's degrees and were professional educators.

Bachelorhood is foreign to all 51 governors, and only three are childless. The biggest family belongs to the newest governor of all, Hawaii's William F. Quinn, who has six children. There are 6 governors with 5 children and 26 with 3 or more.

In the religious line, the Methodists lead the way with 12 governors, while there are 11 Roman Catholics, 8 Baptists, 6 Lutherans, 4 Episcopalians, 4 Presbyterians, 3 with the listing of Protestant, 2 Congregationalists, 1 Jew and one member of the Latter Day Saints.

Only Gov. J. Hugo Aronson of Montana, who was born in Sweden, saw the first light of day outside the United States.

And 39 governors were born in the states of which they are now the chief executives. Ship-

Competition Still The Spice Of Life

Among the benefits of President Eisenhower's tour are high points of realization reached by his countrymen back home as Asiatic millions mass and mill to catch a glimpse of the visiting dignitary.

This is the first time a President of the United States has visited Asia, the world's largest land continent. All that most Asiatics have known about America is a mixture of missionary zeal and commercial enterprise, with the latter bulking larger than the former.

During World War II, they learned in addition about the military might of the nation that had been challenged to fight for its life by the Japanese, who also were Asiatics. The fact the Japanese didn't win loomed less large in perspective in Asia than the fact the Japanese dared to put up a fight.

Then came the loss of face in the collapse of the U.S.-backed Chinese Nationalists under pressure from the Chinese Communists and their Russian patrons; Russians also are regarded as fellow Asiatics. The next proof that the "white man's burden" had been self-imposed and was being taken away by Asiatics was the inability of the U.S.-dominated forces to get anything better than a truce in Korea and the collapse of the French in Indochina.

ALL THIS TIME, Communist conspirators were busy in every Asiatic nation. They were tending the bright fires of nationalism, to burn out the vestiges of Western political control.

Russian dignitaries were making the Grand Tour of receptive capitals. Let it be noted now that with a wince that President Eisenhower's crowds are being compared with those drawn by Premier Khrushchev, who preceded him.

The Soviet Union's officials are not checked out in their jobs these days until they know the ropes in Asia, Africa and the Middle East. And in Asia, where the key to the world's destiny is locked in the potentialities of teeming millions whose industrialization could dwarf the output of the Western World, the Russians know their way around as if they were natives, as indeed they are, in an ethnic sense.

Asiatics never felt so important in the world scheme of things as they feel now. Being rich in wisdom, though poor in goods, they can see clearly that competition between the United States and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics has put them in the position to play off their rivals against each other. They will do it with a vengeance.

IT IS A COMPLETE reversal of the situation that had endured up to the beginning of World War II. Western whites staked out their domains for exploitation and tolerated no competition. Asiatics had nothing to say about it.

But a President of the United States has come to see them now; that never happened before. They have been included in the balance-of-power planning for the modern world; that never happened before, either. But they will not back away from the chance of 100 lifetimes.

Asiatics never had it so good — and this is only the beginning. All they need to do from now on is ask, and something will be promised.

Out of all that is promised, a great deal will have to be delivered.

A golden era is dawning. Whatever Communism can do for the Asiatics, freedom can do better. That is the new watchword.

Eisenhower Was Right The First Time

Away-back there when the grass was green and the first roses of summer were in bloom, President Eisenhower told the steel industry—management and the union representing workers—that it was on its own in its labor relations.

The government, he said, was not going to interfere. It was going to perform its proper function, which was to keep all parties concerned from throwing chairs at each other. But it was not going to do what government had done under previous presidential administrations. It was not going to dictate a settlement. Free collective bargaining was on trial, and it was up to the steel industry to prove free bargaining was what it was cracked up to be.

The grass isn't green now. The roses have withered, and their faded petals have been blown away. The worst that was foreseen as a grim possibility in the steel strike happened. A deadlock brought a Taft-Hartley injunction. The Steel Union is talking about resuming the strike when the injunction runs out in late January. Both sides in the strike are angrier than they were when it was first called on July 1—angrier than they were when it finally became an official deadlock on July 15.

And now, as 1959 draws to a close, President Eisenhower feels obliged to talk about the steel industry as if there had been a change in the government's position. He has come close to saying the industry's labor relations will be taken over by the government if negotiators do not reach agreement before the Taft-Hartley injunction expires.

This might have the effect of clouding the issue in the showdown vote on industry's offer. It might even have the effect of producing an act of Congress framed in general terms, to make it apply to all labor relations, not just steel's labor relations.

President Eisenhower was right the first time. The steel industry is on its own in this 1959 showdown. Labor relations in the United States are on their own. Government interference is not an alternative; it is a defeat. The striking longshoremen on the Atlantic Coast have settled their dispute and will not have to face the prospect of trouble when their Taft-Hartley injunction expires. Steel can do the same.

Time To Ponder

The question of morals was kicked around the other day by four ministers and members of the Kiwanis Club.

The end result was a general agreement that people would do well to match their Sunday morning hymn singing with their weekly behavior and that the man of the cloth should try blunter words from the pulpit when the occasion demands.

Television quiz rigging, payola, crime syndicates and other goings on have helped create an image of a nation swept with moral degradation.

The overall picture isn't as bleak as it appears on the surface. There still are many, many decent and honest people. But there is no question that our morals have slipped to the point in many cases where it's time to stop and wonder.

Soul-searching is in order. There are few of us who couldn't improve our moral character in some way if only we would stop to take the time to think about it. And there's no better time than now — with a new year approaching — to ponder the error of our ways.

When Papa Says No

Americans are free without question; free to make dunces of themselves upon the slightest provocation. A cranberry, a lipstick, or 100 grand can do it — if papa says no.

For nothing, the whole country will go nuts over night; crucify a too smart guy who knew all the answers but one, muss up everybody's Thanksgiving dinner, change the taste of a kiss, glorify the rat as guardian of our physical well-being.

The rest of the zoo runs wild uncaged in Washington. A good first class Pied Piper is what we need — without cabinet status.

I'm strong for substituting the rat for the proverbial "guinea pig," and its better to test it on a rat than "try it on the dog," but I contend that I've eaten and drunk enough "poison" to kill all the rats in Hamelin — including considerable lipstick.

THERE'S AN old saw, "might as well shoot a guy as scare him to death." Stripped down to common sense, the three recent hysterias, the quiz shows, cranberries and lipstick, have emphasized the public's resentment of too intimate meddling with their habits, whether or not for their own good. Prohibition lost out on that score.

A lipstick ban also could swing an election. The distasteful vote probably wouldn't revolt about quiz shows or cranberries but when they fool around with lipstick, the politicians flirt with a two-sex revolution—the gals who wear it and the guys who eat it.

It, therefore, can be expected that before the 1960 elections there will be some sort of armistice. At this writing it is out that Methuselah didn't live long enough to die from cranberry spray.

How long the modern Klanskin Kin would take to commit ecstatic suicide via lipstick hasn't been established but it would seem generations enough to warrant political alarm.

Lipstick isn't a commodity of life-long consumption. It loses its lure when the old gal loses her pucker and the stuff gets

Polar Flood Feared

By Eric Downton

OTTAWA

Canadian scientists are giving a frigid brushoff to a much-advertised Russian plan to melt the North Pole's ice. The Soviet proposal has been given a great deal of international publicity by Moscow radio and propaganda services.

It is treated by Communist propaganda as another example of revolutionary projects by Soviet scientists.

Canadian scientists say that either the Russians haven't done their homework or there is something very sinister about their plan. "It might be Moscow's new secret weapon," one scientist observed wryly.

Canadian scientists have given the idea very careful study for several years. They point out something the Russians omit in their glowing word pictures. A substantial melting of the polar ice cap would probably raise oceanic water levels in the American northern hemisphere by as much as 120 feet.

A rise of this height would mean the flooding of millions of square miles of Canadian territory including most of Newfoundland, Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, the Hudson Bay Basin and much of the St. Lawrence River Valley as far as Montreal.

The Great Lakes water levels might also be affected. Parts of Alaska, Greenland, the U.S. Pacific and Atlantic seaboard states and western European coastal areas would also be flooded. Shipping facilities and fisheries would be disrupted.

FURTHER, Canadian scientists do not agree that the Borisov plan would produce blooming agricultural zones in place of existing ice deserts. More likely, they think, an area of blizzard-swept tundra would result.

The moisture content over the polar basin would be high and this could change the North American weather pattern — for the worse.

Much of the present rich prairie belt, especially in Canada, could be made uncultivable by moist cold air currents coming down from the North Pole.

From 80 to 90 per cent of the average business executive's working day is consumed in "communication" — that is, telephoning, message-sending and letter-writing.

Santa and the ICE KING

by LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

Synopsis: Onnik has asked Santa to visit the Ice King and talk him into ending the continuous winter. Santa was at first hesitant about taking the assignment, but finally agreed. Santa's helper still is not convinced it's a good idea.

CHAPTER SEVEN

Crooked-legged tweedle-knees jumped up and down in a rage. "You cannot leave Santa Land!" he cried to Santa Claus. "Who is going to invent toys and show the fairies how to make them? Who is going to get things ready for next Christmas?"

"Do be quiet, Patrick Tweedle-knees," ordered Santa. "You know very well there may be no Christmas if the Ice King freezes up the whole world."

"But it's dangerous!" shouted Tweedle-knees. He turned and shook his tiny fist in Onnik's face. "Oh, you! Why did you ever come here with your big fat ideas?"

"Don't mind him," said Santa taking Onnik's arm. "He makes a big noise to cover up his kind heart. Come, let's be on our way."

"How will you travel, may I ask?" persisted Tweedle-knees. "The reindeer are gone."

Santa said, "Well, I'll think of something."

"Keotuk can take us!" spoke up Onnik. "Keotuk's my dog. He can take us anywhere. Except—I-I have lost my sled."

"Why, that's nothing!" exclaimed Santa. "I can make us a sled."

"Nothing of the sort," said Tweedle-knees huffily. "I'll make the sled. I'm the chief sledmaker around here, please remember."

SANTA chuckled. "Very well. Have it ready in an hour's time. Now Onnik you go with Tweedle-knees and I'll go see to Mrs. Claus."

Still grumbling, but anxious now to show what he could do, Twe-

"Bring tools," said the dwarf. "I have a sled to build."

dle-knees crawled up the pile of hay with Onnik behind him. They started down the ladder with Tweedle-knees leading the way.

Onnik found that going down the strange contraption was much harder than going up. When he had gone half way he made the mistake of looking at the ground. His head whirled, he missed his footing, and slipped down on Tweedle-knees' head.

With a whoosh they came tumbling to the ground.

"I'm sorry!" cried Onnik, jumping to his feet.

Tweedle-knees lay motionless in the snow. "Are you hurt?" cried Onnik in alarm. But Tweedle-knees lay like one dead. Suddenly Keotuk bounded up. Eagerly he licked the dwarf's face. Instantly Tweedle-knees leaped up.

"What is that thing?" he shouted in horror.

"It's Keotuk, my dog," said Onnik. "He's only trying to help you."

Tweedle-knees drew in his breath. It seemed he was about to let out a torrent of abuse and Onnik's knees shook with fear. But Tweedle-knees merely signed.

"Come on," he said huffily. "But please don't walk close to me for goodness only knows what you might do next." And he marched glumly away with Onnik obediently trailing 10 feet behind.

Presently they turned into the door of a long low building nearly covered by snow. Onnik gasped at what he saw.

AT ONE END of the room a group of silver-winged fairies huddled around a stove that held no fire. In the middle of the room there were long tables, row on row, and on the tables were such toys as Onnik had never seen or heard of.

There were kites and wagons and skates and baseball bats. There were fire engines and boxing gloves and doll houses and toy drums.

Onnik's eyes popped and he stood with his mouth wide open unable to move or speak. But Tweedle-knees marched up to the fairies and said, "Bring me tools and wood. I have a sled to make."

The fairies, shivering and clattering their teeth, shook their heads. "There's no wood to build a fire to keep warm by. How can we find you wood for a sled?"

Tweedle-knees snapped his fingers. "Use the toys for firewood," he said. "And I'll take these wagons apart to build a sled."

"What?" cried the Queen Fairy in consternation. "Destroy the toys we've already made?"

Santa himself is going to settle things with the Ice King," said Tweedle-knees importantly. "When he comes back there will be summer again for sure and when the ice melts we'll find wood enough for a mountain of toys."

Incomplete List Shows County Deer Bag Of 19

The deer kill in Columbiana County during the three-day season ended Saturday was estimated at about the same as in 1958, according to Rufus Lide of Damascus, county game protector.

Lide said he saw two deer carcasses and had verified reports of 19 deer shot, but added a number of hunters may have bagged deer about which he did not hear.

Lide reported he counted 14 deer killed in 1958, but said he did not receive the official state report on the deer kill in the county.

As Crowds Flock To Governor

Rockefeller Hopes Rise

By RELMAN MORIN
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, touring the wintry Middle West today, is running into unexpectedly warm political weather.

In some places it turned almost tropical toward him.

He drew overflow crowds in South Bend, Ind., and St. Louis, Mo. The majority of Republican chiefs in both states are reported favoring Vice President Richard M. Nixon as the nominee for president.

But as one of them put it, after seeing Rockefeller, "You have to take a good, long look at this guy. I was pleasantly surprised."

Again and again, rank-and-file Republicans in St. Louis said to him, "I hope you make the race." A woman said, "Governor, you've got to run now after so many of us stood in line this long."

Most significant, a number of people who shook Rockefeller's hand told him they are Democrats.

GOP strategists are painfully aware that, being outnumbered in registration by the Democrats, their presidential candidate must pull votes from the opposition party, along with independent votes, to win.

Last month, Rockefeller went to the West Coast.

The present trip across the Great Plains will be his last, he says, before he announces whether to try for the Republican nomination. He says he would like to be able to make it before Jan. 6, when the New York Legislature convenes.

On both trips, he invaded states where Nixon's strength is supposed to be overwhelming.

In both cases, there were clear indications that Republican leaders began having second thoughts after talking with him and seeing him in action.

Sen. Homer Capehart (R-Ind) offered to bet that Rockefeller would have half the state's 32 convention delegate votes if he makes the run. Capehart, alone among Indiana's top Republicans, is openly favorable to Rockefeller.

"I've been for Nixon for many years," said Missouri state chairman H. Kenneth Wangelin. "But I'm glad to see a good Republican like Rockefeller here. This reception shows great interest in him."

He referred to the biggest, noisiest, warmest welcome Rockefeller encountered on either trip.

Some 4,000 people pushed and shoved through a hotel ballroom to meet Rockefeller Sunday afternoon.

Then, for nearly two hours, Rockefeller stood, shaking hands with people. Some told him they came from distant points in Missouri, others from nearby Illinois.

Here are some word-for-word comments:

"I sure hope you run."

"We're all behind you, governor."

"You look like the next president."

"We're from Cyprus, Mo., and we're Democrats."

A Missouri Republican who asked not to be quoted said later he estimated Rockefeller could have "at least half" of the state's 26 convention votes.

In Lot In Denver

Banker, Democratic Aide Meets With Violent Death

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Violent death in a ragged part of town early Sunday ended a night of revelry for banker George F. Rock, 52, Colorado Democratic national committeeman for seven years.

His body, the clothes blood-stained and pockets turned inside out, was found in a tiny park—littered with wine bottles and beer cans. An autopsy showed he died of a skull fracture.

Detective Sgt. Keith Morris said Darlene Gresham, 29, a Negro, told him Rock, who was white, fell down the stairway of her apartment.

Morris said the woman related she called a Negro cab driver and with the aid of another Negro woman placed Rock's unconscious body in the cab and drove to the park eight blocks away where they dumped Rock's body.

The detective said William Franklin Tribmel 28, a cab driver, admitted he made the trip. Police are holding the Gresham woman, Tribmel, and another Negro, Clarence McGroom, 32. No charges have been filed.

The Gresham woman was quoted by Morris as saying she met Rock outside Romolo's, a downtown Denver restaurant and bar, opposite the Cosmopolitan Hotel.

Rock had attended a stag party for the Jesters, a Shriners' fun society, at the Cosmopolitan Saturday night. About midnight he left there with two friends, Joseph J. Marsh, automobile dealer, and Clifford Price, owner of an auto glass company.

The trio went to Romolo's and when the bar closed at 2 a.m. they departed, each heading for his own car, Marsh said.

Marsh told officers Rock cashed a $100 check at the hotel and repaid him $20 which Rock borrowed earlier in the evening. Officers said Rock's wallet was empty when they found it in the park and an expensive wrist watch was missing.

Rock was president of the Bank of Denver. He was prominent in the city's civic life, and belonged to many professional and social organizations.

He leaves his widow, Marie Kathleen, and three children, George F. Rock III, 22, Eugene, 17, and Linda Mae, 11.

Rock was active in the Democratic party all his adult life. He was born at the old mining camp of Telluride, Colo. After his education at Rutgers University and Westminster Law School in Denver, Rock settled in Denver.

Cleveland Stores Hit By Burglars

CLEVELAND (AP)—Two Euclid Ave. stores were hit by weekend burglars who took merchandise estimated to be worth $75,000 to $100,000 from a wholesale jewelry firm and $3,500 in coats, jackets and stoles from a fur company.

In each case the burglars cut through an inside wall to get into the room where they collected their loot.

At Parker-Hall Co., 4628 Euclid, thieves took the entire diamond and stock, $1,500 that was in a cash drawer, and clocks, watches, cameras, and transistor radios. Charles Schaeffer of South Euclid, the store manager, set the loss figure. He said the burglars knew what they were after and "seemed to pass over the less valuable items."

At Daniel Thellman & Sons Fur Co., 2025 Euclid, the burglars set off a silent burglar alarm at 12:12 a.m. Sunday. The manager, Daniel Thellman, said they missed a $5,000 mink coat and $10,000 in other mink furs that were hung on the same rack from which they took an assortment of mink, lamb

Bethia Southwick Chapter Hears Talk On 'Hymnology'

Mrs. Jean Fraser made a plea for reviving the use of old hymns in the church when she spoke on "Hymnology" at the Christmas dinner of Bethia Southwick Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Friday night at Platt's Tea Room on 15th St., Wellsville.

"The grim spirit of religious and political rebellion that hovered over the American colonies was reflected in the songs they sang," she said. "In 1640, the Bay Song Book was published in Cambridge, Mass., the first book printed in English-speaking America."

"Psalm singing held sway for a century and a quarter but more liberal forms of music were creeping in," she said. Isaac Watts wrote hymns with original words, among them "Oh, God Our Help in Ages Past" and "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross." Today we sing and love the old hymns. In most churches we are being conditioned to forget them."

Quoting from an article by Ann Stommel she added: "The hymns and songs that our parents and grandparents sang in church and Sunday School are disappearing. New ones are gradually replacing them and when the old tunes are used the pace is quickened. It is not only that the old hymns are familiar and easy to sing but they are the basis of our Christian religion."

Christmas meditations were presented by Mrs. Ford Ball in the articles, "How the Glad Tidings Came" (Peale) and "Christmas is Always" (Dale Evans Rogers), and a New Year's prayer by Robert Louis Stevenson.

Mrs. Dwight MacLean, chaplain, used Luke 2 for devotions and the flag salute was led by Mrs. Almeda Jones, followed by the national anthem accompanied by Mrs. Isabel Hart.

Committee reports on good citizenship, conservation and national defense were given. The American Indian committee reported that three boxes of used clothing and several items of new clothing made by Mrs. Ford Ball, all valued at $55, had been sent to the Indian reservation at Blyas, Ariz., and a box of Christmas gifts, valued at $25, has been mailed to St. Mary's High School for Indian girls at Springfield, S. D. A gift exchange was held.

The Steubenville District of the Methodist Church will hold the initial meeting of the Lakeside Crusade at Calvary church in Steubenville Wednesday at 6:30 p. m.

All the ministers of the district are invited to the dinner, along with members of the crusade committee.

The crusade aims to raise $500,000 in Ohio for physical improvements at the Lakeside Methodist Center, including the lake front, outdoor chapel, youth facilities and other needed buildings.

The Rev. C. W. Stoneburner is district superintendent.

The committee is comprised of the Rev. Glenn Tennell, pastor of the Calvary church at Steubenville, chairman; the Rev. R. L. Krepps of the LaBelle View church, also at Steubenville, the Rev. William Snowball of the First church at Salem, the Rev. Merle Chaffee of the Wintersville church, the Rev. Roy Hilliard of the Seio church, Dr. D. Finley Wood of the First church of East Liverpool, the Rev. Clarence Cumber of the Riverview church at Toronto, and Carlos Deemer of East Liverpool and C. W. Cribbs, Mrs. W. B. McClave, John E. Peterson and Miss Ann Q. Scott, all of Steubenville.

Lakeside is in Danbury Township across the bay from Sandusky. The Lakeside Association was formed June 21, 1873, and since then it has become the center of summer activities of Ohio Methodism.

It is the seat of the two Ohio annual conferences with a complete summer program and has come to be known as the "Chautauqua of the Great Lakes."

Holmes Schools May Be Penalized

MILLERSBURG, Ohio (AP) — Two Holmes County high schools may have their charters revoked by the State Board of Education today for allegedly not meeting minimum standards.

Six grade schools in the county also face the problem of having their state foundations aid cut off.

The high schools are Glenmont, with 56 pupils in four grades, and Nashville, with 65 pupils. Both have been inspected by state education aides and found lacking in curriculum and facilities.

It is expected that Dr. E. E. Holt, superintendent of public instruction, will recommend that the board revoke the charters at the close of the current school year. The board meets in Columbus at 1 p. m.

Officials of the local school districts may request hearings, which customarily are held in Columbus. If the revocations stand, the school districts would have to merge with others or pay tuition to send the pupils elsewhere.

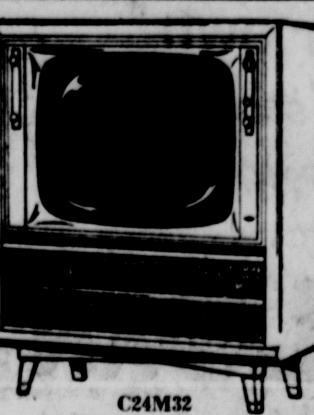

The two Holmes County schools are in a list of 10. The others are in Perry, Union and Meigs counties.

The schools affected in Wayne County are in Salt Creek Twp. and of the total of 180 pupils almost all are from Amish families.

2 Americans Named Cardinals

Pope Restates Opposition To Artificial Birth Control

By FRANK BRUTTO
VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII today named two Americans to be cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church and at the same time pointedly restated the church's opposition to artificial birth control as a means of limiting hungry populations.

The two American prelates—Archbishop Albert Gregory Meyer and the former bishop of Fargo, N.D., Archbishop Alois J. Muench—were among eight new princes of the church named by the 78-year-old pontiff in a secret consistory held in the Vatican's Consistorial Hall.

The Pope in his reference to birth control made no mention of the current controversy kicked up by the opposition of American Catholics to possible use of U.S. aid funds for foreign birth control programs. But his linking of birth control with the "problem of hunger" and his statement in connection with an event of wide interest in America left no doubt of his intention.

"For a great part of humanity," the Pope said in his Latin allocution naming the new cardinals, "the problem of hunger is still grave. To avoid this very grave calamity, in no case can erroneous doctrines be adopted or lethal methods of limitation of births."

The cardinals were not present at the secret consistory. Instead they waited at various points in Rome or Vatican City for the official notification from the Pope's messengers.

The two Americans waited at the Pontifical North American College on Rome's Janiculum Hill.

The secret consistory will be followed by a great public consistory in St. Peter's Basilica on Thursday at which the new cardinals will receive their galeros, the broad-brimmed red hats symbolic of their rank.

The Pope's action brought the total membership in the College of Cardinals to 78, highest in the history of the church. It gives the United States a total of six cardinals, the most ever allotted to the United States.

In addition to the Americans, the new cardinals are William Theodore Heard, Scottish dean of the Holy Roman Rota Tribunal; Agostino Bea, Jesuit confessor of the late Pope Pius XII; Francesco Morano, 87-year-old secretary of the Ecclesiastical Tribunal; Gustavo Testa, 73-year-old nuncio to Switzerland; Acadio Larrona, Spanish secretary of the Vatican's Congregation of the Religious; and Paolo Marcello, the Vatican's 64-year-old nuncio to France, who was to receive his notification in Paris according to an old custom between the Vatican and France.

Jack E. Froelich, satellite project director at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory in Pasadena, was a football cheer leader in Burbank, Calif., High School.

"Terms of the proposal could mean that public and employee safety would be dependent on management's well-known record of linking safety to financial considerations. Use of firemen (helpers) for reasons of safety and efficiency would be determined by cost not need," he said.

In its assault on pay rules, Gilbert said management was laying the groundwork for more work at less pay.

"A conversion table on wage rates supplied by the carriers represents a slide rule formula for paying the same amount of money for more work.

"This conversion table creates a mathematical factor that, when applied to present pay scales, adjusts them to a 160-mile basis rather than the present 100-mile scale. Thus, an engineer and fireman running 100 miles under the new rule would receive even less pay than they now receive for running 100 miles.

"Reduction in pay would result also from elimination of graduated rates of pay based on weight of locomotives. In addition, the carriers want to cut all rates 15 cents per hour," he stated.

Circuit Court Judges To Seek Re-Election

Two judges who serve the Northern Panhandle of West Virginia have announced they will be candidates for re-election in the May 10 primary.

They are Judge J. Harold Brennan, Republican, and Judge J. J. P. O'Brien, a Democrat.

Both jurists serve the 1st Judicial Circuit, which includes Hancock, Ohio and Brooke Counties.

Arts And Sciences Attract More Of College Students

CINCINNATI (AP)—More high school graduates are going on to college this year, but the engineering schools are getting less and less of them.

More women are going to college than ever before—nearly 10 per cent more than in last year's freshman classes.

In the schools of teacher training there are still far too few students to lead the classes of the future, yet they have six per cent more freshmen.

Those are key points of the annual survey of American college populations, made for the 40th year by Dr. Raymond Walters, president emeritus of the University of Cincinnati.

More of the new students are going to arts and sciences colleges, he said—nearly seven per cent over last year.

Dr. Walters said the nation's 995 colleges and universities bulge with a student body of 2,811,704.

Ike

sion of peace and freedom on to Greece.

It was the longest day of the President's three-continent tour, spanning 3,300 miles between New Delhi and Athens. It included six busy hours in the Iranian capital and another crowded six hours in Athens before bedtime tonight.

The President's plane took off for Athens at 2:38 p.m. It was due at the Greek capital 3½ hours later.

Eisenhower praised Iran's bravery in the face of a "powerful propaganda assault" a few hours after a cheering, flag-waving throng of 750,000 hailed his arrival in Tehran, half-way point on his 22,000-mile mission of peace and good will.

In an address to a joint session of Iran's Parliament, the President said the people of Iran "continue to demonstrate that quality of fortitude which has characterized the long annals of your history as a nation."

"I know I speak for the American people when I say we are proud to count so valiant a nation as a partner," he declared.

Eisenhower addressed the Parliament after a two-hour private review with Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi of problems facing this American ally on the southern doorstep of the Soviet Union. The President told the legislators the free world must not abandon such defense alliances as the Middle East's Central Treaty Organization—to which Iran belongs—until the Soviets agree to an enforceable world peace.

The President received a standing ovation from Parliament before and after his address. Applause interrupted him only once, however, while he was speaking—when he recalled how Iran, with American support, succeeded in putting down a Soviet-backed attempt to set up a Communist government in northern Azerbaijan province in 1947.

The President's voice was hoarse, and he cleared his throat several times while speaking. His doctor blames the hoarseness on the frequency with which he has been speaking.

Eisenhower never mentioned the Soviet Union by name, but it was clear he had the Soviets in mind when he repeatedly praised Iran's bravery.

As he has done earlier in his visit to Italy, Turkey, Pakistan, Afghanistan and India, Eisenhower also:

1. Called for global war against the natural enemies of mankind—hunger, privation and disease. He warned that peace will not be secure until nations meet the aspirations of their people for a better life.
2. Urged "realistic beginnings" maintenance and equipment replacement. They won't have that drain on their finances.

"If the city income in 1960 is not greater than it was in 1959, not counting the income tax, they still should be able to operate and pay the higher salary and wage rates. I would like to stress that would mean no major improvements — just operating as we've been operating."

"With regard to the city's immediate cash position, I have found it difficult to get precise estimates from any source, including Lisbon," the mayor continued. "It's suspected some of that information is being withheld or not compiled and made available because they are afraid if we have too much precise information we would spend money on other items of equipment instead of carrying it over into next year."

"We should be able to get more information than we have been able to get. But it seems clear to us the city could now undertake the purchase of a few more items of equipment and still leave adequate balances for the next administration. It appears the cash carry over will be adequate to underwrite the increases that are anticipated."

New York Policeman Turns To Bible For Those In Need

NEW YORK (AP) — A burly, high-ranking police officer, kneeling in prayer with a pair of teenage boys. This is a common scene at offices of the man who supervises law enforcement today in one of the city's toughest neighborhoods.

Deputy Inspector Conrad S. Jensen does the job—not just with a strong arm — but with spiritual stimulation. The Bible is his handbook.

"It's the only real answer for any situation," he says.

Big, muscular, 48-year-old Jensen for 3½ years has commanded the 23rd Precinct, embracing Manhattan's discordant, racially variegated, gang-ridden East Harlem.

"What most of these people need," he commented in an interview, "is a little love and attention."

On the force 23 years, Jensen this month was promoted from precinct captain to divisional deputy inspector.

"I try to discharge my duties first as a Christian, then as a policeman," he said.

"When a person comes to the place that he realizes the word of God does have the answers to the problems of society, it is amazing what happens."

In motley, jumbled East Harlem with its Italian-Negro-Irish-German-Puerto Rican population and the biggest concentration of youth gangs in town, the high crime rate has declined during Jensen's tenure.

Jensen's office door is always open to any kid that wants to see him.

Jensen keeps a Bible on his desk. In discussions with upset families or worried teen-agers, he often reads pertinent verses, sometimes kneels with them in prayer.

"I don't believe the answer is in new houses and new playgrounds, but in new people. They can be changed, and only the gospel can change them. The gospel of Christ can change anybody."

ple, John Grafton, Robert Bickar and Franklin Cole.

Wilson and Mrs. Nell Persohn, directors of the snowball dance by the pixies; Miss Violet Voradran, director of the Christmas clowns and snowflake sprites; Miss Pauline Smiley, scenery, and Mrs. Tamar Calhoun, programs.

Because of the play, no business meeting will be held Ralph Widger, president, said. The next meeting will be Jan. 12.

Variety Of Beautiful Designs Offered In Plumbing Fixtures

CHICAGO — Top industrial designers have directed their talents toward plumbing fixtures to make them more of an attractive addition to the home than ever before.

This year's fixtures offer a great variety of beautiful designs with many added convenience features that will help the housewife make her bathroom as pleasing to the eye as the rest of her home.

Fixture styling today leans toward clean, uncluttered lines, the Plumbing - Heating - Cooling Information Bureau says.

Having lost their clinical, functional look, new fixtures create an impression of comfort and elegance. In doing so, they satisfy two of the homemaker's primary requirements.

First, they lend themselves to stylish decorative schemes. This is especially important today, for home owners are giving bathroom decoration the same attention they lavish on the living room, bedroom, kitchen, recreation room, and patio. Today's fixtures are designed to suit particular buyers' tastes perfectly.

Color is increasingly a factor in the choice of bathroom and powder room fixtures. A recent national survey indicated that pink is the undisputed leader in popularity.

Fixtures also come in a wider variety of sizes and shapes today. This makes sense to the housewife who wants even a small bathroom to be comfortable. And it also satisfies those who are modernizing roomy older bathrooms.

Bethany Student To Be Helped By Roy Rogers' Gift

BETHANY, W. Va. — A scholarship gift from Roy and Dale Rogers, cowboy king and queen, will enable a young Bethany College student to continue her preparation for the missions field.

Dr. Perry Epler Gresham, president of the College, announced last night that Roy and Dale Rogers have contributed $50 to a scholarship fund in the name of Mr. and Mrs. William Arthur Rush, a Bethany alumnus and trustee, is the personal manager of Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, who also are friends of President Gresham.

The money will go to further the education of Miss Diane Stainton, who wants to do social work on the mission field. A college freshman, she is from Dartmouth, Nova Scotia, Canada.

In the letter which accompanied the donation, the Rogers wrote their friend, President Gresham, that "This is a Christmas gift to Mr. and Mrs. Rush because of his great love for his alma mater and because of your uncompromising Christian stand and teaching."

Miss Stainton is the daughter of a minister, the Rev. Bruce Stainton, who died of cancer at the time he was a "home missions" worker organizing a new congregation, the Wyndholme Christian Church, at Dartmouth, Nova Scotia. Stainton, secretary - evangelist for the Maritime provinces of Canada, was a friend of Dr. Gresham.

"When the gift came from Roy and Dale Rogers," Dr. Gresham said, "we looked around for a needy student. We found that Miss Stainton had come to school this year without sufficient funds to meet her needs for the whole year — but with faith that help would be forthcoming."

"She didn't ask for a scholarship, because she didn't want to exclude any other potential needy students."

"But now that her needs have come to light, she will receive further scholarship aid."

Miss Stainton taught school for three years before beginning her college work this fall at Bethany. She taught grade three at Findlay School, an elementary girls' school, at Dartmouth.

Prior to that, she was graduated from St. Thomas Collegiate Institute, a high school, and also attended Nova Scotia Normal College for one year.

How Can I?
By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. Can you suggest a good way to prevent baby's bottles from constantly tipping over in the refrigerator?

A. Try storing these bottles in a six-bottle soft-drink carton, which takes a minimum of space in your refrigerator and does provide insurance against spills.

Q. How can I remove paint stains from clothing?

A. By saturating them with equal parts of ammonia and spirits of turpentine. Soak the places well and then wash with soap suds.

Q. How can I keep from crying when peeling onions?

A. Try munching on a piece of white bread while peeling onions, and see if it does not eliminate all those tears.

Tile Floor Gains Favor, And It's Easy To Put Down

AP Newsfeatures

Much of the popularity of resilient tile flooring in recent years apparently is due to the fact that almost anyone can install it.

Many do-it-yourself projects require a certain amount of skill to achieve good results. But putting down floor tile is mainly a matter of patience.

If you can cement a single tile to the floor, you can cement dozens of them, assuming that you follow directions and exercise the same care with all the tiles as with the first one.

High on the list of resilient flooring tiles which have found favor are those made of vinyl. They come in a wide variety of color patterns and are easy to keep clean.

There was a time when vinyl tile was not recommended for concrete surfaces below ground, such as in basements. But by using certain kinds of vinyl, with a special adhesive, even those installations now are possible. Your dealer can fill you in on this at the time you purchase the tiles.

On new wood strip floors, or old ones in good condition, asphalt-saturated felt paper is first cemented to the floor, with the tile cemented to the paper.

On old wood strip floors, first nail down any loose or broken boards. When the strips are less than four inches wide, install quarter-inch plywood or quarter-inch hardboard underlayment before putting down the tile. When the strips are four inches or wider, the plywood or hardboard should be a little thicker — three-eighths of an inch or half an inch.

The tiles can be placed directly over concrete, under the conditions previously outlined, after cracks and holes have been filled and all grease, wax and dirt removed.

However, if the concrete floor has been painted with an oil-base paint, it is wise to remove it first with a sanding machine equipped with an open coat paper. This is not necessary if the paint has a rubber base.

Installing the tiles, is merely a case of putting one tile against another, once the measurements have been made and the pattern selected.

The trick, if there is one, is to place each tile firmly against a tile already in position and lower it into position. In other words, do not slide the tile into place, since this causes the adhesive to ooze up between the tiles.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Domestic Workers Deserve Respect

Fortunate is the child who grows up in a home where he learns by precept and example to respect the domestic helpers as persons. He hardly will acquire such a wholesome attitude in a home where the custom has been to treat the domestic helpers as maids or servants, to refer constantly to them as such, and therefore, to act toward them as if they were inferior. Naturally, he will imitate his parents in these attitudes and ways. Of course we can't easily change the ways of parents who for generations have looked upon domestic helpers as inferior persons and treat them that way. Yet these ways, which so strongly prevail, explain why so many women loathe doing housework, especially when there are children. These women would prefer to work, often at less pay, in a factory or elsewhere.

AS MUCH as any domestic helper might suffer from your attitude that she is an inferior person, consider how much more she must resent being so treated by your children.

When children begin to show no concern about the extra work they cause her, when they give her orders and boss her around and treat her as an unimportant person, it may be more than her self-regard will allow her to take any longer. If she can find any other way to keep body and soul together, she will quit.

The other day I heard a tragic story about a young mother who went a few days a week to tidy up the house of a working mother.

This attractive, bright, capable young woman is the mother of two children, whom she hopes to send to college. She and her husband are earnestly striving to pay for their home.

ALTHOUGH SHE had never been referred to by her employer as a maid or servant, some of her "girl friends" had kidded her about doing housework. Yet she earned more than some of them employed in office or factory work, and her hours were practically at her own convenience.

Both her parents and most of her relatives were old friends of the employer and her family, and highly esteemed by them. This young woman is considered a grand person who chose to help out a neighbor and earn a bit extra.

But something happened. Two grandchildren, under 12, came to spend several weeks at the employer's home. The young woman helper obliged by being with these children for a d d d hours during the employer's working hours.

Only after the grandchildren ended their stay did the grandmother discover the rude manner in which they had treated the kind young helper. They called her maid, disobeyed her and tried to boss her around. She was about to quit in disgust.

Tragic as were the insults to this young woman, the attitudes and ways of these children were far more tragic.

My bulletin, "Good Manners and Self-Control," may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

2 Midland Men Await Beaver Burglary Case

Two Midland men and Beaver Falls man, all charged with burglary, will have their case heard during criminal trials which got underway this morning in Beaver County Court on indictments returned by the Grand Jury last week.

Among those indicted were Lewis E. Barron and James H. Green, both of Midland, and Wilbur L. Miller of Beaver Falls. All three were cited by Beaver Falls police. Also to face trial is Venson M. Toy of Kittanning who was indicted on a charge of rape filed by a Clinton R. D. woman.

Trials are expected to run this week and next for some 35 cases, the office of District Atty. Richard P. Steward reported.

4 Motorists Forfeit In Traffic Violations

Four motorists forfeited bonds totaling $59 today in Municipal Court for traffic violations.

Ralph DeAngelo of Smiths Ferry and Melvin R. Rowley, 319 W. 5th St., forfeited $16 each on charges of speeding early this morning on the Pennsylvania Ave. "Hill Rd."

Norman L. Ferguson, 1160 Harker Ave., forfeited the same amount on a reckless driving charge filed by the State Highway Patrol. He was cited Saturday night in Liverpool Township, the patrol said.

Harold B. Brockman, 100 W. Grant St., East Palestine, forfeited $11 for crashing a traffic signal at W. 8th and Jefferson Sts. Saturday.

Truman Raps Merger Of War, Naval Posts

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman says the merger of War and Navy Cabinet posts under the secretary of defense was "a shotgun wedding that didn't take."

Interviewed Sunday on a taped CBS-TV program, "U.N. in Action," Truman recalled that the War and Navy Cabinet posts were merged after World War II under the Department of Defense. The secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air Force serve under the defense secretary.

"They've got four there now and they can't get along," Truman commented.

Man Outdraws Himself In Fast Draw Contest

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—William Junior Harvill came to town for a fast draw contest and wound up in the Clark County Jail.

Sheriff's deputies said Harvill, 32, of Phoenix, Ariz., was an ex-felon in possession of a firearm— forbidden by law. Authorities said he once was convicted of armed robbery.

Harvill posted bail and made it on time to the hotel-sponsored competition Sunday. But the Arizona, competing with a borrowed gun, didn't place.

Prior to the building of the 50-mile Panama Canal, ships were forced to sail around South America, a distance of about 7,825 miles.

Keep In Trim

Posture Correction Needed By Youngsters

In youngsters, posture faults often go unnoticed until the adolescent years when the sudden spurt in growth accentuates defects. By that time habit is grooved in and verbal reminders to "straighten up" roll right off. So it's a healthy sign that mothers of pre-adolescent children are asked by Ida Jean Kain for exercises to correct swayback and slumping, as well as to fix budding figure faults.

First, let's look into the causes. Many American children are actually underprivileged — when it comes to the chance for physical exercise. In so many communities there are no places for children to play, no sidewalks on which to walk, roller skate, or roll a hoop; and no safe place to ride a bicycle.

THE MUSCULAR deficiency that results from lack of exercise makes it all the more important to see that youngsters do not fall into bad posture habits.

Here are some of the well-known causes of swayback: lying on floor or bed, propped up on forearms, to read; sleeping on stomach with head on a high pillow, or sleeping on a sagging bed.

Round shoulders are encouraged by sitting on a hassock or foot stool with no support, perhaps to watch TV; continued sitting on floor or couch with legs out straight and no back support.

One-sided habits in children are fostered by curling up for hours in a big chair to read; habitually carrying books on one side; or reading propped up on one elbow. Children who are convalescing should have a backrest to use when they sit up in bed.

Fatigue from too little sleep and poor food habits are often to blame for slumping. School children who slight breakfast can't help but slump as the morning wears on.

Exercise can strengthen muscles and correct posture faults. Youngsters enjoy imaginative exercises. They can make believe they are cocoons.

Position: Lie on back, knees bent and slightly apart, soles of feet on floor.

MOVEMENT: Pull knees up toward chest, keeping knees slightly separated. Grab knees with hands and rock-a-bye baby. Return to starting position and repeat four times. Reward? Straightens out swaybacks.

From this same position, make angel wings. Arms down at sides, palms up, keep backs of wrists and elbows on floor as you circle arms around until they are extended on floor beyond head. Swing arms back down and circle again ... 6 times.

Send a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope for "Get A Lift With Posture." Address Ida Jean Kain, care of this newspaper. Post card requests can not be answered.

Man Dives Into Creek To Get Deer Carcass

Hunters will do about anything to bag a deer but here's a new twist.

Willy Sturgeon, 27 of near Fredricktown was one of three hunters which fired at a young doe Saturday near Fredricktown.

The deer slipped into Beaver Creek and Sturgeon dove in after his catch. After battling against a strong current for almost an hour, Sturgeon brought the deer to shore.

Two Warren hunters also shot the deer and it looks like a three-way split.

Trip Hailed As Landmark

Ike's Visit To India Brings 'New American Approach'

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

Associated Press News Analyst NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Indians today professed to see in President Eisenhower's visit a re-appearance of American idealism of the sort that appeals to educated Asians seeking directions for their struggling countries.

Many hailed the visit as a landmark of U.S. relations with India and all of Asia.

Eisenhower's triumphant stay in the Indian capital was interpreted as a sign of a new direction in U.S. policy, a trend strongly emphasizing the futures of the restless, underdeveloped overpopulated Asian continent.

Indians will be a long time assessing the results of the visit. Actually, in terms of tangibles, there is little they can put their fingers on. There were no decisions, no broad sweeping conclusions. But such things had not been the purpose of the Eisenhower visit. What the President showed the Indians was a glimpse of America and what it purports to stand for.

The term "new American approach" is being used here to describe the principal result of Eisenhower's visit—an American approach toward Asia based upon an attempt to understand how Asian attitudes came about and why Asians think as they do.

Asians, particularly Indians, like to think that the hectic four days in which Eisenhower was the object of vast admiration of India's masses had a close relationship with what will happen in Paris when the Western heads of government examine their positions in preparation for the summit meeting on world tensions with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

They like to think also that the visit means the United States is ready to apply its great strength, enormous wealth and respected moral force to the goal of world betterment.

Eisenhower told India the welfare of the United States inevitably is bound up with the welfare of India.

One of his most important messages stressed the need for what he called a noble world war against hunger.

Greece's Dynamic Premier Gets Things Done In Hurry

By VASSO MINGOS

ATHENS (AP)—President Eisenhower's visit to Greece brings him into contact with one of the most successful politicians in modern Greek history.

Constantine Karamanlis has been prime minister for four years. That is a record which only the late Eleutherios Venizelos — 1929-32—has equaled since the beginning of this century.

Three things have made it possible: Karamanlis' get-up-and-go, his good looks and his guts.

When Marshal Alexander Papagos died in October 1955, the government he headed had been in power three years and still had a year to go. His party, the right-wing Greek Rally, enjoyed a majority in Parliament but it could not make up its mind on a successor to the marshal.

King Paul broke the deadlock by entrusting Karamanlis with the formation of a new government. As public works minister under Papagos, Karamanlis had earned the reputation of getting things done.

In February 1956 when the country elected a new Parliament Karamanlis' good looks stood him in good stead. Now 51, he is tall, dark and handsome—and the best dressed man on the Greek political stage. He used his own picture as the ballot symbol of the National Radical Union, the party he formed to run in the election. It was the first parliamentary election in which Greek women were allowed to vote. Karamanlis and his National Radical Union got a big majority.

A year later, two of his most dynamic lieutenants, Public Works Minister George Rallis and Coordination Minister Panayotis Pappagouras, defected and won over a number of National Radical Union deputies. They contended new electoral legislation would strengthen the leftists' ranks in Parliament.

The National Radical Union's strength was reduced. It still held an absolute majority in Parli-ment but Karamanlis would have none of that. His resignation brought a new general election in May 1958.

His party was returned with a greater majority than ever.

Everything seems to indicate that Karamanlis will serve the remaining 2 1/2 years of his term undisturbed and most likely win the next election too.

In the four years he has been in power the thorny Cyprus question was solved, confidence in Greek money was fully restored, a five-year economic plan aimed at raising the standard of living was started, and new industries mushroomed.

Girl's Tugging In Vain As Train Kills Woman

CINCINNATI (AP)—A tugging, pleading effort by 14-year-old Bonnie Sexton failed to save a woman from death at a railroad crossing in north Cincinnati Sunday.

Mrs. Rose Blevins, 32, was struck and killed by a passenger train.

The girl was walking nearby when she saw the woman down, apparently having fallen. "I thought it was a log at first," Bonnie said. When she saw it was a woman, she related, "I grabbed her arm. She looked up at me. I said, 'Oh, please, get up.'"

"The train was getting nearer and I couldn't flag it down. She just looked up like she was scared. She was scrambling and reaching for me, but she couldn't move her body. She didn't say anything. She was just too heavy for me to move. When the train was real close, I just ran."

2 Stories Studied In Fatal Shooting

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—The motive and many details in the fatal shooting of Raymond Duncan, 33, at his home in North Ridgeville early Sunday still were unknown to police today in spite of a 14-hour question session with the victim's wife and half-brother. Michael Ondreyco, chief investigator for the Lorain County sheriff's office, said Madeline Mae Duncan, 29, wife of the slain automobile plant worker, had told him she could not remember anything about the shooting except that she had not done it. The half-brother, Thomas L.

Tyree, 17, told Ondreyco two stories. First he said he shot Duncan when Duncan lunged at him with a knife in a drunken rage. The rage, he said, was caused because he had dropped a shoe and awakened Duncan who was sleeping on a living room couch. Later Tyree made a statement that he went outside the house to a toilet, heard two shoes and turned to find Duncan lying wounded on the couch, Mrs. Duncan standing near him, and a rifle on the floor at her feet. The youth told Ondreyco he had made up his first story to help Mrs. Duncan. Duncan, a bullet hole in his forehead and another near his left ear, died in Memorial Hospital here an hour and a half after the shooting. The Duncans and Tyree came here from West Virginia, and the half-brother had lived at the Duncan home since Aug. 12.

Sheriff Vernon Smith said Tyree and Mrs. Duncan would be given lie detector tests today in Shaker Heights. It was actress Cornelia Otis Skinner who said: "Woman's virtue is man's greatest invention."

Wellsville Sinks Potters With Last-Period Spurt, 55-38

Kiggans, Jackson Pace Tiger Attack

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

A hustling Wellsville team kept the East Liverpool Potters on the ropes for three quarters, then delivered the knockout blow in the fourth and final period to walk off with a 55-38 victory Saturday night.

The game, witnessed by an enthusiastic crowd of 1,200 in Beacom Memorial gym, saw the Tigers of Coach Jack McDevitt notch their second victory in two nights after knocking off Lisbon Friday.

While the game was somewhat close in the first three periods, the big difference came in the fourth quarter.

In that period, East Liverpool got only 6 points while the Tigers fired in 18.

THE POTTERS, under their new mentor Jim Harris, were constantly fouling the Wellsville cagers, a factor which helped bring the lopsided verdict.

Wellsville shot 40 fouls and connected on 25, while outscoring the Potters in field goals but 15-14.

East Liverpool was almost hopeless in the fourth quarter when Wellsville had the action pretty much in its own way.

The defeat marked the first for Harris as new head coach. His Potters had spilled Alliance in the opener Friday.

Bob Kiggans and Franklin Jackson provided the one - two punch for Wellsville. Kiggans dropped in 5 field goals and added 6 fouls to lead all scorers with 16. The Wellsville star scored all of his points in the first half.

Jackson, who was controlling both backboards, also found time to toss in 14 points.

Off the bench to spark the Tigers for the second straight night was Mac Comparetto, who scored two buckets and hit on 6 of 7 fouls for 10 points.

THE TIGERS also took advantage of some erratic passing by the Potters, who lost the ball on poor tosses several times.

Kenny Cunningham didn't come close to matching his 27 - point effort in the opener, but shared scoring honors with Bob Mackall with 12 points each Saturday.

They were the only Potter cagers to break into the double figures. Kenny Miller was next in line with 7 points.

Forward Craig Burbeck, who was a workhorse on the boards, failed to make the scoring column, while center Ray Bigelow added four points to the attack.

East Liverpool was way off the mark in shooting, with only 14 field goals in 60 attempts for a poor 23 per cent.

Wellsville, which made the most of the foul line, took only 46 shots and hit on 15 for 32 per cent.

The Potters lost three players in the fourth quarter on personal fouls. Bigelow went to the sidelines with 4:47 remaining. Burbeck left with 3:22 and substitute Phil Chan committed his fifth foul with two seconds remaining.

Both teams got off to a slow start as four ties featured the opening eight minutes. The final deadlock of the first period came at 11-11 with 39 seconds remaining. Then Jackson hit two fouls to send Wellsville in front 13-11 for a lead the Tigers never relinquished.

MIDWAY through the second quarter Comparetto hit his first field goal and Kiggans dropped in a pair of fouls to send the Tigers in front by 10 points — 29-19 — their biggest lead of the game to that point.

Miller and Jackson exchanged goals, then Mackall hit on a foul to cut the margin to nine, 31-22.

With less than a minute left in the first half, Kiggans hit on a jump shot and substitute Harold Atkins dropped in his first field goal as a varsity performer for the Potters to make the score read 33-24 at halftime.

Only 12 points were scored in the third quarter, 8 by the Potters and 4 by Wellsville.

The third period saw East Liverpool make its one big bid for victory.

Mackall opened the second half with two straight goals, but Phil Baldwin matched this effort for Wellsville's only points in the third quarter.

Bigelow hit on a push shot and Cunningham on a set shot to cut Wellsville's margin to 5 points, 37-32.

Wellsville returned to the court for the fourth quarter fired up as Jackson opened the scoring with a foul.

Comparetto sparked a rally by scoring the next four points. Two came from the charity stripe, while the other was a clever underhand shot that rolled in to send Wellsville out in front 42-32.

Jackson kept the scoring string going with a basket and a foul and the Tigers were coasting along on a 45-32 margin.

East Liverpool didn't score until 4 minutes and 14 seconds had gone by in the final period. Cunningham finally broke the ice with a bucket.

The Tigers dropped in five straight fouls, three by Jackson and two by Comparetto, to make the score 50-34 and pretty well put the clincher to the game.

Three Champions Fight Tonight In Exhibitions

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

Three champions fight tonight and the big news is that one of them is Sugar Ray Robinson. The other two are featherweight boss Davey Moore and lightweight ruler Joey Brown, two ever-busy fighters.

The three 10-round bouts are all no-title affairs and none will be seen on television.

Robinson, idle since he beat Carmen Basilio in Chicago 21 months ago, takes on Bob Young of Providence, R.I., at the Boston Garden. This is a tune-up for defense of his New York and Massachusetts - recognized midweight crown against Paul Pender at the same arena, Jan. 22.

Pender, of Brookline, Mass., is fighting on the same card tonight. He takes on Gene Hamilton, one of Robinson's old sparring partners, in the co-featured ten.

Brown, of New Orleans, meets Joey Parks of Omaha in a return bout at New Orleans and Moore faces rugged Hilario Moarles of Mexico City at San Francisco.

The Brown-Parks scrap could be the best of the night. Parks, a national unknown, surprised the 33-year-old champ in Albuquerque last Sept. 25. He floored and cut Old Bones and held him to a draw. Now Brown, in top shape after stopping England's Dave Charnley in the sixth round of a title defense Dec. 3, is smarting to make up for the blot on his record.

Parks, of course, will have plenty to gain if he makes it that close again. A draw or victory could move into some more lucrative shows.

Friday night radio-TV viewers -NBC radio-TV 10 p.m. Eastern Standard Time will get a look at the No. 1 welterweight contender in Charley Scott of Philadelphia. Winner of six straight, Scott mixes with Benny (Kid) Paret, a freewheeling Cuban, in the ten-round feature at New York's Madison Square Garden.

Middleweight contenders Gene (Ace) Armstrong of Elizabeth, N.J., and Rudy Ellis of Chicago collide in an interesting television bout - ABC TV 10 p.m. Eastern Standard Time - at Convention Hall in Camden, N.J., Wednesday night.

During the 91 days Waterford Park will enjoy two holidays. Wheeling Downs was granted 102

The first is from April 6-May 23, Aug. 8-Sept. 23 and Oct. 31-Nov. 26.

The Charles Town track was allowed 95 days, while Shenandoah Downs received 103.

Syracuse Seems Set In '60 Despite Moans From Coach

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Ben Schwartzwalder, coach of Syracuse's unbeaten, untied and Cotton Bowl-bound football team, is no different from most other gridiron mentors.

The national champions are headed for a January 1 date with Texas at Dallas after completing a 10-0 season. But already the coach is moaning about next year's prospects.

"We were indeed pleasantly surprised this year," said Schwartzwalder as he accepted the Lambert Trophy awarded annually to the outstanding Eastern big college team Sunday night. "But next year? I hate to think about it. I'm afraid we won't be back except to pass the trophy on to another school."

But there was something of a twinkle in his eyes, and there was doubt in the minds of his listeners.

ers — coaches, former football greats and writers, for they know there are enough blue chips in the Orange stockpile to ride the glory trail for years.

Graduation takes only five of the starting 11, including Ger Schwedes, captain and halfback, and Roger Davis, All-America guard. But there's a flock of tough and battle - trained reserves on Piety Hill ready to step in their shoes.

Then the former West Virginia ace turned an envious glance toward Mark Strum, 230-pound Delaware center who joined with Coach Dave Nelson in accepting the Lambert Cup as the ranking Eastern small college team.

"Where did you get him?" asked Schwartzwalder of Nelson. "I sure wish he could play for us in the Cotton Bowl."

"I spotted him when he was nine years old," replied the slightly built Nelson. "Lives across the street from me. I wrestled him

Colts Defeat Rams; Giants Trip Redskins

By The Associated Press
Johnny Unitas, Baltimore's man with a golden arm, has pitched the defending National Football League champion Colts to their second consecutive Western Conference title with one of his gilded passing performances.

The cunning 26-year-old quarterback rallied the trailing Colts for a 21-point blitz in the final period Saturday that carried Baltimore to a 45-26 victory over Los Angeles.

geles and into the NFL championship game against the New York Giants, Dec. 27 at Baltimore.

The situation was anything but bright for the Colts when Unitas decided personally to toss the league's youngest entry another crown.

Losers of seven straight and playing their last game under Coach Sid Gillman, the Rams led 26-24 in the fourth quarter with 65,528 Coliseum cheering their every move.

Unitas calmly reared back, spotted rookie Jerry Richardson and fired a nine-yard touchdown pass to put the Colts out front to stay. It was Unitas' third scoring heave of the game, giving him 32 for the season and extended to 37 straight his TD-game streak. Both are NFL records.

The Eastern Division champion Giants, who'll be seeking to avenge a 23-17 sudden death loss to Baltimore in the championship game last year, warmed up Sunday by defeating Washington 24-10.

Cleveland wound up tied for second place in the Eastern Division with Philadelphia by whipping the Eagles 28-21. The runner-up spot in the West went to Chicago's Bears, who ran their winning streak to seven games—longest in the league this season—by beating Detroit 25-14.

Green Bay won its fourth straight, thumping San Francisco 36-14 and tied the 49ers for third place in the West. Pittsburgh whacked Chicago's Cardinals 35-20 in the other game on the windup program.

After Unitas' clinching TD, the Colt defense took over. Dick Szymanski went 15 yards with an interception for one score and Carl Taseff tied an NFL mark by running back a missed field goal try 99 yards for another.

The Rams (2-10) had built their lead on four field goals by Lou Michaels and TD runs of four and 27 yards by Joe Marconi and Jon Arnett. Touchdown passes of two and seven yards from Unitas to Ray Berry and a 53-yard run by Mike Sommer kept the Colts (9-3) within striking distance.

Charlie Conerly fired two touchdowns against the Redskins (3-9) and Frank Gifford set a club rushing record as the Giants became the first Eastern team to win 10 games since Cleveland in 1953. Gifford gained 4 yards for a career mark of 3,347. New York's Pat Summerall kicked one field goal and three conversions to finish second in the league's scoring race with 90 points.

Jimmy Brown, used mostly as a decoy in the early stages, plunged short yardage for two touchdowns in the final period as the Browns came from behind to overtake the Eagles. Both finished with 7-5 records. Norm Van Brocklin kept Philadelphia close, connecting with 15 of 22 passes for 246 yards and one touchdown. Brown again was the league's ground gaining champ with 1,329 yards in 290 carries.

Ed Brown arched a pair of TD flips and John Aveni booted three field goals for the Bears (8-4) triph over the Lions (3-7-1). The Chicagoans finished one game shy of first place for the second year in succession.

Paul Hornung scored 22 points on three short scoring bursts and four conversions and Bart Starr passed for two touchdowns in the Packers' (7-5) triumph over the 49ers (7-5). Hornung won the NFL scoring title with 94 points. Green Bay thus capped a successful campaign under new Coach Vince Lombardi, compiling its first winning record since 1947.

Bobby Layne tossed four scoring heaves and tallied once himself as the Steelers (6-5-1) avenged an earlier loss to the Cards (2-10). With his aerial display, Layne moved within 22 yards of the all-time career mark for passing yardage. Layne has gained 22,063 yards in 12 years while Sammy Baugh passed for 22,065 in 16 years with Washington.

MIDDLEWEIGHT champion Sugar Ray Robinson is examined by Dr. Francis Wixted at the boxing commission's office in Boston. Robinson, who was pronounced in good condition for his non-title 10-round fight against Bob Young of Providence, R. Browns Win Over Eagles Gives Big Lift To Team

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Coach Paul Brown was mighty proud of his Cleveland Browns for their come-from-behind 28-21 victory over the Philadelphia Eagles here Sunday. The great goal line stand in the third period was particularly heartening.

"When you take a licking like we did last week and bounce back it proves there are good people on this squad, all of them."

"Paul seemed at the point of tears when he talked to us after the game," said one veteran player. "He was all choked up."

"I could hardly hear what he was saying but this game really affected him. In fact, it got all of us. We sure feel a lot better now."

Brown said "this was a matter of pride, not money. Before the game I asked them to go and give it a real try. They did that and more."

Brown pointed to linebacker Walter Michaels, defensive captain, who had a broken hand and sat out the first half as one who exemplified the Cleveland spirit.

"Walter asked me to get in the game," the coach related. "His hand bothered him but he was one of the strong men on that goal line stand."

The coach also singled out tackle Willie Floyd Peters, a rookie, and Willie McClung, as stalwart defenders in the back-to-the-wall defense when the Eagles were halted seven times within the 4-yard line.

That stand was the turning point of the game. The Eagles led 21-14 at the time and a two-touchdown deficit would have been difficult to erase.

But, instead the Browns marched 99 yards for the tying score, then won it.

Six Browns Selected For Pro Bowl Contest

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Six Cleveland players have been selected for the East squad in the annual Pro Bowl game at Los Angeles, Jan. 17.

After Sunday's game, these Browns were told they have been picked for the all-star game:

End Bob Gain and linebacker Walter Michaels on defense; and fullback Jim Brown, tackle Lou Groza, guard Jim Ray Smith and center Art Hunter on the offense.

Warriors Lose Two Games, Drop 5 1/2 Behind Boston Five

By The Associated Press
The Philadelphia Warriors are finding that it is not all beer and skittles in the National Basketball Assn. even with Wilt Chamberlain scoring at a record pace.

Losing two games over the weekend, the Warriors slipped 5 1/2 games back of the pace setting Boston Celtics in the eastern division and held to second by a mere one-game margin over the Syracuse Nats.

Chamberlain was held to 22 points, some 14 below his average, as the Warriors dropped a 126-117 decision to the Celtics Saturday. The victory was the Celtics' ninth straight. But Sunday night, the 7-1 rookie came back with 33 against Syracuse. Still the Warriors lost 150-121 with Johnny Kerr matching Chamberlain point-for-point.

The Nats set club records for total points, half and three quarters as they took a 38-24 first period lead, increased it to 71-52 at the half and 111-78 at the three-quarter mark. They also hung up a club mark in hitting 63 field goals on 111 shots for a percentage of 56.8.

FIGHT RESULTS

Buenos Aires — Federico Thon, 152, Argentina knocked out welterweight champ Don Jordan, 153, Los Angeles, 4 (non-title).

Sao Paulo, Brazil — Eder Jofre, 120, Brazil outpointed Danny Kid, 121, Philippines, 10.

Nogales, Mex. — Bantamweight champ Joe Becerra, 118 1/2, Mexico outpointed Frank Duran, 118 1/2, Austin, Tex. (non-title).

Doug Weaver Named Coach At Kansas State

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP)—Doug Weaver, just seven years ago a linebacker at Michigan State, has been named head football coach at Kansas State University.

He is 29, youngest coach in the Big Eight Conference.

Weaver, who succeeds Bus Mertes, was given a four-year contract and a free choice of assistants. Mertes, head coach five years, resigned.

Cincinnati broke even in two teams, beating Minneapolis 107-97 Saturday and losing to St. Louis 118-98 Sunday. New York dropped deeper into the eastern division cellar, losing 147-129 to Detroit in a Sunday TV game as Walt Dukes turned his best performance.

The Hawks held Jack Twyman to 19 points and got 53 points from their one-two punch of Bob Pettit and Cliff Hagan in downing the Royals. Pettit scored 26 points and led in rebounds with 19. Hagan tallied 27.

Dukes, former Seton Hall ace who has threatened to quit, tossed in 38 points, a personal high, and set an Olympia Stadium record for rebounds with 32.

The Pistons output was their highest since shifting to Detroit three years ago. Richie Guerin, who scored 57 points against Syracuse Friday in New York, paced the Knicks with 28 points. New York's Carl Braun became the 10th player in NBA history to pass the 10,000-point mark when he tallied 14 to run his all-time total to 10,003.

Holiday Cage Tourneys Take Over Spotlight In College Basketball

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer
The December madness called the holiday basketball tournament gets going in earnest this week and, as usual, two perennial Santa's helpers named North Carolina and West Virginia are heading to Kentucky-land in hopes of staking a claim to national leadership.

Two years ago, West Virginia used the Kentucky Invitational at Lexington to snap defending national champ North Carolina's winning streak at 39 and start its ride toward a No. 1 national ranking.

Last year, North Carolina started on the way back to the top in Louisville's Blue Grass Holiday tourney while West Virginia, subsequently the NCAA Tournament runner-up, was having it out with the University of Kentucky in the Kentucky Invitational.

Now it's the Kentucky Invitational grabbing the spotlight again with the North Carolina Tar Heels and West Virginia's Mountaineers in line for sky-high ranking if one can manage a pair of victories.

The big 4-team Lexington tournament, opening Friday night with West Virginia (5-0) against St. Louis (4-1) and Kentucky (2-2) against North Carolina (3-0), is one of seven holiday affairs helping Santa live up the weekend before Christmas.

More than a score more roll into action next week in one of college sport's most hectic periods.

West Virginia holds the key at Lexington because the men of Freddie Schaus also have an important date in the power-packed Los Angeles Holiday Festival beginning Dec. 28.

If the Mountaineers, led again by All-America Jerry West, can nail the Kentucky title, it will make the Los Angeles tourney the biggest in the land. In the LA line-up are the California Bears, holders of the nation's longest major winning streak at 19 and the club that beat West Virginia by one point 71-70 in the NCAA title game last March.

To further build up the coast tourney, beginning Dec. 28, there are also such powers as Illinois, UCLA, Northwestern, Southern California, and Stanford along with Michigan.

California has won three straight this year and rates along with Cincinnati (4-0), Ohio State (5-0), North Carolina and West Virginia as the nation's big five in early estimates.

In addition to the Kentucky Invitational, the Friday and Saturday tournament fare also has Alabama, Duke, Auburn and Navy in the Birmingham (Ala.) Classic, Manhattan, Gonzaga, San Diego State and Portland U. in the City of Roses tournament at Portland, Ore.; Baylor, Mississippi State, Murray (Ky.) and Memphis State in the Murray Invitational, and VMI, Kentucky Wesleyan, Middle Tennessee and Southern Illinois in the All-American at Owensboro, Ky.

There's also small college competition in the St. Michael's (Vt.) Invitational Friday and Saturday, and the Quantico Marines against seven small schools in the Quantico Invitational Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

The tournaments got started last weekend, with Pitt winning the Steel Bowl at Pittsburgh by defeating Duquesne 75-44 in the title game, and Oklahoma City coming from 17 points back to topple Montana State College 74-67 for the championship of the Treasure State Classic at Bozeman, Mont.

Warming up for the big weekend, there's a solid major schedule tonight including some of the major unbeatens. West Virginia tries for No. 6 in a Southern Conference game against VMI, and Mississippi (5-0) goes against Arkansas State.

Three of the Midwest's unbeaten, Illinois (2-0), Nebraska (3-0) and Bradley (3-0), have good tests—Illinois against Marquette, once-beaten Notre Dame at Nebraska, and Providence (3-0) at Bradley. Maryland tries for its third straight against Georgetown (DC) and Texas for No. 4 against LSU.

Bucks, Cincy Keep Moving

By HAL PARIS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Unbeaten Cincinnati and Ohio State, rolling along at a merry clip, take to the road this weekend seeking new conquests.

The youthful Buckeyes (5-0) continue an extended road jaunt Friday when they invade Indianapolis for a rematch with Butler. Only last week, the Bulldogs suffered a 99-66 defeat at the hands of Jerry Lucas & Co.

Cincinnati (4-0) appears headed for a more difficult task Saturday when the Bearcats journey to Louisville. The Cardinals, highly touted by pre-season dopesters, will have to stop dynamic Oscar Robertson to win.

While Cincinnati and Ohio State were grabbing off most of the headlines during the first two weeks of the season, Xavier earned a share of the spotlight Saturday night with an upset victory over St. Bonaventure.

The Muskies, who won some headlines of their own by capturing the National Invitational Tournament in 1958, had sophs Jack Thobe and Jim Haffner pitch in 17 points each in the 69-57 decision over the Bonnies.

Xavier (3-0) gets another acid test tonight in Detroit. The host Titans are unbeaten and fresh from an 84-63 trouncing of Purdue.

Two previously unbeaten Buckeye teams took it on the chin for the first time Saturday. Toledo dumped Dayton, 81-71, as four Flyers fouled out in the contest, and Indiana bounced Ohio University, 80-68.

In other top games Saturday, Wittenberg coasted to its fourth in a row by beating Mount Union, 62-36. It was the Tigers' 30th straight win on the home floor.

Muskingum topped Capital, 62-57, to keep first place in the Ohio Conference. Miami broke a three-game losing streak by shading Western Michigan, 76-71, and Akron gained its first victory in a 76-74 thriller over DePaul.

Bradley had too much for Bowling Green, thumping the Falcons, 99-72, despite 27 points by Jim Darrow.

In some top attractions this week, Miami goes against Marshall and Toledo tangles with Western Michigan in two Mid-American Conference title Wednesday; Dayton takes on unbeaten Drake and Ohio U. visits DePaul Thursday; and Seattle plays Xavier, Miami meets Michigan, Ohio U. is at Illinois and Dayton is at home to The Citadel in Saturday action.

Dudley Interested In Offer To Head Buffalo Operation

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Bud Dudley says he's very interested in an offer to become general manager of the Buffalo football team in the new American Football League.

He adds his Liberty Bowl promotion has kept him so busy he's been unable to make a decision. Dudley confirmed Sunday that he had been offered the job last month, but he expressed surprise the Associated Press had learned of his secret talk with Ralph Wilson, owner of the Buffalo club.

Dudley, 40, is a former athletic director at Villanova and president of the Liberty Bowl Assn. "I'm certainly interested and hope to get up to Buffalo after the game to look over the situation and make a decision," said Dudley. "Buffalo has more potential for making a success of pro football than any other team in the American League."

Mr. K Figures In 1960 Plans Of Democrats

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's peace crusade may influence Democrats to pick as a 1960 presidential nominee the man the party believes best qualified to deal with Nikita Khrushchev, two Democratic senators said today.

Sens. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont) and A. S. Mike Monroney (D-Okla) expressed that view after some pulse feeling in connection with next year's presidential election.

Mansfield, the assistant Senate Democratic leader, said that Eisenhower in his appearances in Asiatic and European nations is making a tremendous impact on the neutral areas of the globe in behalf of the free world's objectives.

Mansfield said Eisenhower is achieving triumphs "as President of the United States and not as head of the Republican party." But he added that the success of the tour is bound to be reflected in political thinking at the time of the party nominating conventions in July.

"We have five candidates for president, any one of whom is qualified to deal with Khrushchev," Mansfield said. "It will be up to the convention to decide which one it wants." While he did not name them, he obviously referred to Adlai E. Stevenson and Sens. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, Stuart Symington of Missouri, Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota and Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas.

2 Children Hurlled Into Scioto River By Angry Father

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—A 42-year-old Portsmouth man is being held on two charges of first-degree murder after admitting he threw the two youngest of his nine children into the Little Scioto River.

Alfred Scarberry told police he waded into the river near his home here late Saturday night with 2-year-old Kenneth and 3-month-old David Lee and let them go. (The bodies have not been recovered.)

Police said Scarberry had been drinking and had threatened earlier to set fire to his three-room home.

Mrs. Scarberry called police when her husband carried a stove to the back porch and threatened to throw it against the house. She said as she was calling police, Scarberry grabbed Kenneth and David and ran from the house toward the river about 200 yards away.

The man was found four hours later when he attempted to admit himself to Portsmouth General Hospital. Police said he had a history of mental illness.

The Scarberys, who live in the Sciotoville area, have only two other children living with them. Five youngsters are wards of the county, police said.

High water has halted attempts to drag the river for the bodies.

Corn Moisture Content Requirement Is Raised

Price - support eligibility requirements for 1959 crop corn have been changed to increase the maximum permitted moisture - content by one - half of 1 per cent, according to Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

This is the approximate effect of the change in the basic method of determining the moisture - content of corn under the new U. S. Grain Standards, revised this year. The revised standards became effective Oct. 1.

To be eligible for farm-storage loans, under the revised eligibility requirements, 1959 crop ear corn must have a moisture - content not in excess of 21 per cent through February 1960, 19.5 per cent during March 1960, 18 per cent during April 1960, and 16 per cent during May 1960. Maximum permitted moisture - content is changed from 13.5 to 14 per cent for shelled corn under farm - storage loans and for corn in approved warehouse storage.

Further information about price-support loans on corn and other crops may be obtained from the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Offices in Lisbon, Beaver and New Cumberland.

Out-of-Date Work Practices in Steel Mean Lost Markets, Fewer Jobs, and Higher Costs to YOU

That's What The "Local Working Conditions" Dispute Is All About

Like every successful enterprise, the steel industry is constantly striving to improve its efficiency and hold down the cost of its product to you.

Since the end of World War II, it has spent more than $12 billion on new plants and equipment, and hundreds of millions more on steel-making research.

It has sought to provide its steelworkers with the world's finest tools of production and the world's most modern methods and techniques.

Yet the Fact-Finding Report of Secretary of Labor Mitchell shows that, today, output per man-hour has increased much less in steel than it has in the total national economy.

Why is this true?

Fault Lies in Restrictive Contract Provisions

The Steel Companies believe the answer lies largely in the fact that one provision in the former steel contracts has prevented the elimination of many outmoded local work practices in the industry. This "local working conditions" provision has, for years, protected waste and inefficiency in the plants, and has led, inevitably, to higher costs of the steel you buy.

Here is a typical example of the way this provision has worked:

Contract Prevents Improved Efficiency

A seven-man crew was employed on a particular furnace in one of the steel companies. After studying the work-load of this crew, the company transferred two of these seven men to other jobs, leaving five men to run the furnace. Even then, none of these five men had to perform as much as four hours a day of actual work, although each put in eight hours and was paid for eight hours. Moreover all five men now received incentive pay they had not enjoyed before.

Thus, no one was thrown out of work, no one was overworked, everyone benefited and two unnecessary jobs were eliminated. But the Union objected, a grievance was filed and the arbitrator held that this change was in violation of the contract. The seven-man crew had to be restored simply because the use of seven men on this furnace had become an established local working condition.

Waste and Inefficiency Cost Markets and Jobs

As the result of many such instances, the steel industry is finding it more and more difficult to meet the growing competition from steels made abroad and from substitutes for steel made at home.

During the past two years, steel exports have declined sharply while the tide of foreign steel imports has steadily risen. Today it is estimated that this trend—heightened by the effect of the steel strike—has given foreign steel makers a market this year for 6,600,000 tons of finished steel products that were formerly made in America.

To produce this quantity of finished steel would provide full-time jobs for nearly 52,000 people in the American steel industry.

Changes Would Help—Not Hurt—Workers

Union officials have fought the Companies' proposals for changes in the new labor agreements on the ground that elimination of waste might wipe out some jobs.

The truth is that if the industry is hampered in meeting competition, far more jobs could be lost through declining sales and shrinking markets, than could possibly be lost through any changes in working conditions.

Efficiency Means Job Security

To sum it all up:

The greatest job security is a busy industry.

Today the American steel industry is facing the most intensive competitive challenge in its history.

It can meet this challenge only with the help of the steelworkers.

Only by eliminating waste and by increasing efficiency can it maintain and expand its markets to the greatest possible degree, and thereby protect the jobs of its workers, the investment of its owners, and the industrial strength of America itself.

No job is ever really saved by perpetuating waste and inefficiency.

STEEL COMPANIES' PROPOSAL TO SOLVE THE LOCAL WORKING CONDITIONS DISPUTE

The Steel Companies have proposed the following steps to solve their disagreement with the Union over changes in the restrictive language in the old labor agreements:

1—The question would be submitted for study and recommendation to a joint committee of two outstanding men—one named by the Union, the other by the Companies. This part of the proposal was suggested by the Union and accepted by the Companies.

2—If no solution results by next June 30, the question would then be submitted to binding arbitration by a board of three—one named by the Union, one named by the Companies, and the third chosen by these two nominees. This board would render a decision within 90 days.

3—The question submitted for study, and arbitration if necessary, would be as follows:

"What, if any, changes should be made in the local working conditions provisions of the basic labor agreements to enable the Companies to take reasonable steps to improve efficiency and eliminate waste, with due regard for the welfare of the employees involved, including: the avoidance of undue work burdens; and, to the extent practicable, the retraining and placement on available jobs in the plant, of any employees affected by such steps?"

4—Pending a final solution of the issue in one of these two ways, the Companies would agree that the present local working conditions provisions be retained in the new contracts, if the Union, in turn, would agree that its officers and members will cooperate with management to improve efficiency and eliminate waste.

Thus the Steel Companies are proposing a deliberate, orderly, step-by-step method of solving this problem. Clearly they are not trying to wipe out—"at the bang of a gavel" all of the evils that have grown up through the years under the former contracts.

On the contrary, they are seeking Union cooperation in solving the serious problems that now exist and that must be faced squarely.

With such cooperation, they believe that the Union and the Companies together can provide the steelworker with a greater degree of job security than he has ever known before.

But without this cooperation—and so long as the Union officials refuse to consider the change of a single word, or even a comma, in the provisions of the former contracts—the inevitable result must be the loss of steel markets, the loss of steel jobs, and the loss of America's industrial strength.

Have A Problem? Then Play It Cool

Christmas is almost upon us. The streets of our cities are thronged with the bustle of busy shoppers and our homes are filled with the sense of excitement that inevitably precedes the holiday season. It is probably a strange time of year to write about the art of quietness, but somehow I think that quietness has much more to do with the coming of Christ than all the hustle and bustle men have invented to honor His birthday. We Americans do not excel at the art of quietness. When faced with difficulty we are likely to go into a dither. I received thousands of letters from people who write about personal problems. Often, they nervously insist that these problems must be solved right away—quick! They become more and more excited, nervous, sometimes even panicky.

Dr. Peale

WHEN I VISITED Japan I was impressed by how well the Japanese cultivate quietness. In fact, it is one of the things about them that I admire the most. An Englishman who runs an American company in Japan told me that he had learned and benefited greatly from the Japanese technique of becoming quiet before tackling a problem. He practices what is called ryomi.

The nearest you can come to an English translation of this term is "the taste of coolness." The idea is that you can handle a problem if you keep cool—if you get the "taste of coolness." And the method for accomplishing it is unique.

The first thing is to take a bath. In taking a Japanese bath, a first cleanse yourself with a self-administered shower which is accomplished by splashing water over yourself with a wooden pail. Then you submerge in hot water to your chin in a large, deep pool where you leisurely sit and soak yourself. This soon induces relaxation and gives you time to think.

WHEN YOU come out of the bath you put on a yukata, a cotton kimono, and go into a cool room unencumbered by furniture, as is the Japanese style. You sit on the floor.

Sales Tax Hits $2,106

Sales tax collections hit $2,106 in Columbiana County in the week ending Nov. 28, a decline of $2,245 from the $4,351 shown in the same week of 1958. State Treasurer Joseph Ferguson reported today at Columbus. The collections stand at $748,077 since the start of the fiscal year July 1, gain of $47,879 over the $700,198 shown at cross-legged on a tatami. The tatami, is a lovely, soft straw matting covering the floor. And there you sit, listening to the windbells tinkling in the gentle breeze.

You don't talk; you just sit. You are brought amber tea in a little bowl. You do not gulp it down. You savor it and smell it; you sip it and commune with it. You sit and meditate and enter into deep silence. Gradually, the restlessness goes out of your mind and you begin to think clearly. As you practice ryomi you get the "taste of coolness."

Now you are in a condition to grasp your problem and perceive an answer. Out of quietness comes the power to take a difficultly apart and put it together again properly. We need to develop an American counterpart of ryomi—something that will give us this mental coolness.

When difficulty strikes there is in all of us a tendency to become nervous, apprehensive, disturbed. But no one can handle a difficulty with any degree of skill unless he becomes calm and composed.

You have to have all your wits about you. You must be able to think—and you cannot think when the surface of the mind is disturbed. That surface must be quiet so that intimations from the depths of consciousness, where there is knowledge of how to grapple with the situation, may come to the surface. The first essential, therefore, in any difficulty, is to practice the art of quietness.

THE JAPANESE have their technique, and it is an excellent one. But there are many others. In my own church, as an essential part of every service, we have several minutes of creative silence. A deep quietness falls over the great congregation.

People often say they come miles just to experience the "immense power" of those quiet moments in God's house. They say they find answers to their problems and peace for their minds. One man even told me he got more rest out of that spiritual, quiet period than "out of a night's sleep."

Among the Quakers, meetings consist in large part of the practice of spiritual silence. And more and more, our churches and synagogues are remaining open for long periods for private prayer and meditation. You can find innumerable opportunities to practice the art of quietness. Try it today. You'll find it most helpful.

The commission said the examination will be held Jan. 6 at 7:30 p. m. at City Hall to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of James Reed, who resigned at the end of his probation.

Applications will be accepted until 4:30 p. m. Dec. 28 and blanks can be secured from any member of the commission or at Mayor Fred P. Lawrence's office in City Hall.

School Board Lets

Bond Contracts

LISBON — The Fairfield-Waterford Board of Education Friday awarded a contract to the McDonald & Co. of Cleveland for the sale of $500,000 in bonds to construct a new high school next spring. The new building will accommodate 500 students.

The Cleveland bonding firm was one of five bidders and offered 4 1/2 per cent with a $7,900 premium, according to Joe Driscoll, executive head and board secretary.

The bids ranged from the low rate of 4 1/4 per cent to 4 3/4 per cent with premiums ranging from $1,539 to $3,387. The board said that while the premium offered by McDonald & Co. was not the highest, the interest rate was the lowest.

Squire, Sanders & Dempsey of Cleveland, bonding attorneys, must approve the contract. The bonds will mature in 23 years.

The board will meet Tuesday, Dec. 22, at the Fairfield School to discuss the plans with Robert Beatty, East Liverpool architect. Bids will be opened about March 1 and construction work is expected to begin in mid-March, depending on the weather. The new school will be erected off Route 7 about a mile west of Middle-

Odd And Interesting

By W. I. GORDON

The claim of being the father of the modern automobile has been advanced by two men. One is Joseph Cugnon, a Frenchman, who in 1789 constructed a steam-carriage running on three wheels. The American claimant is George B. Selden of Rochester, who in 1896 obtained a patent for a gas-engine automobile.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Readers: The mail from outraged barbers continues to pour in from every one of the 50 states. (Haircuts in Alaska are $2.50). So here are more:

From Martins Ferry, Ohio: Barbering is an art and a science. Today a barber needs the digital dexterity of a brain surgeon, a repertoire of jokes like Bob Hope, the tact of Dale Carnegie and the best arch supports money can buy.

Riverside, Calif.: Why doesn't Chicago Pop wear his hair in a braid and call it a day? Has he ever seen a barber's water bill, laundry bill, or electric bill? Does he know that good scissors cost $30 each and that shears are $45? Lotions, creams, shampoos, combs, brushes, razors and sterilizing equipment are mighty expensive. Let him try to buy a good razor strap under $25.

Detroit, Mich.: Do you know who the biggest grippers are? The ones who tried to cut their hair at home or let Mom do it! They come slinking into the shop hoping the barber can do something with the chewed up home-made haircut.

Madison, Wis.: Chicago Pop deserves a pop on that bald head of his. The barber does more than just cut hair. He builds confidence and boosts morale. Show me the man who doesn't feel like a million bucks (and look 100 per cent better) when he gets out of the barber chair. It's the best $2 he ever spent.

Little Rock, Ark.: I live in Hardy, Ark., and read your column in "The Arkansas Gazette." I'd like to suggest to Chicago Pop that he come down here for his haircuts. They run $1 in Hardy and are as good as any Chicago barber can give.—G.M.

Dear G.M.: A roundtrip ticket to Hardy is $36. I don't think it would pay.—Ann Landers.

Wilmington, N.C.: My husband is a barber. He says baldheaded men are his toughest customers. They value each lock as if it were a golden thread. They hate to see one cut. Yet they come in the shop for a haircut. YOU figure it out.

Vancouver, B.C.: Chicago Pop and every other Pop in the United States and Canada waits till Saturday to get a haircut. Then he complains because the barber gets him out of the chair in 9 minutes. What else can a barber do when 50 per cent of his customers pick this one day?

Akron: The hardest part of barbering is listening to the nutty chatter of the customers. Most of them talk so blomin' much foolishness it's all a barber can do to keep from cutting off the guy's ear just to change the subject.

Longport, Ind.: Ask Chicago Pop much Chicago Mom leaves in the beauty shop every week? That ought to button his big fat lip.

Long Over Due

TAMPA, Fla. (U) — Forty-one years ago Alfred C. Greeson received a hand wound and injuries to the eyes while serving with the Illinois 33rd Yellow Cross Division in the Meuse-Argonne offensive in France. His purple heart medal for war injuries arrived in the mail recently with no explanation for the delay.

Washington: When you get through with the barbers, how about letting the plumbers have it? I got charged $5.57 for a 2-minute job. The rubber ring cost 7 cents—the service call was $5.50!

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
